CORRESPONDING BODIES.

General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—Rev. S. T. Stewart.

General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church—Rev. Elbert S. Porter.(2)

Associate Reformed Synod of New York—Rev. R. Howard Wallace.(5)

This report was partially made, when the further reading was postponed till the afternoon.

Messrs. Dumont, Christian, and Comfort, were appointed a Committee on Elections—to whom persons present with informal commissions, or without any commissions, were referred.

The following papers were then read to the Assembly by Dr. Hoge, viz. Resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Ohio, No. 129.

Whereas, the General Assembly of the Old-school Presbyterian Church will hold its annual session in the city of Columbus, commencing on the 15th of May next; and whereas, there is no room in the city large enough for the accommodation of that body; therefore,

Resolved, That this House extend an invitation to the General Assembly of the Old-school Presbyterian Church, to hold their deliberations in the hall of the House of Representatives.

The above resolution was passed by the House, April 15th, 1862, as appears by the Journal.

[Attest,]

EDWARD KINSMAN, Clerk.

Joint resolution relative to tendering the use of the State Library to the members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That the free use of the State Library is tendered to the members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, during the sitting of said Assembly while in this city.

JAMES R. HUBBELL,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

B. STANTON,
President of the Senate.

May 1, 1862.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, }
Columbus, Ohio, May 8, 1862. }

I hereby certify that the foregoing is truly taken and copied from the original roll on file in this office.

W. S. KENNON, Secretary of State.

OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STATE HOUSE, }
Columbus, Ohio, May 15, 1862. }

To the Moderator of the General Assembly:

Rev. and Dear Sir—The Honourable House of Representatives of Ohio, having tendered the use of their legislative chamber to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, during their session in Columbus, the undersigned respectfully states that said chamber has been prepared for their reception, and invites your venerable body to occupy the same.

Very respectfully, &c.,

WILLIAM M. AWL, Superintendent.

It was

Resolved, That the invitations conveyed in these papers be accepted; and that the thanks of this General Assembly be returned for the courtesy and kindness.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this afternoon in the State House, according to the invitation above.

Closed with prayer by Dr. George Junkin.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, devotional exercises were continued for half an hour, in prayer, singing, and reading the Scriptures, under the direction of the Moderator; Messrs. Halsey, Hoge, Stevenson, and H. K. Clarke leading in the exercise of prayer.

The roll was then read; and the Committee on Elections reported that the following persons were present with irregular commissions, viz., James Cameron and James Wallace, from the Presbytery of Wyaconda; R. B. Abbott and W. A. Pugh, from the Presbytery of White Water; James E. Marquis and James H. Patterson, from the Presbytery of Peoria; Joseph Anderson, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati; James E. Bell, from the Presbytery of Saline. Also that the following were present without commissions, viz., Nehemiah Wade, from the Presbytery of Oxford, and John Kelso, from the Presbytery of Albany. Satisfactory evidence being produced that all these Commissioners had been duly appointed, the Committee recommended that they be admitted to seats in this Assembly.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of officers. The Rev. Dr. Charles C. Beatty, of Steubenville, was chosen Moderator; and the Rev. A. A. Hogue, of Transylvania Presbytery, was chosen Temporary Clerk.

The office of Stated Clerk appearing to have been vacated by the absence of Dr. Leyburn, nominations were made for a successor. A resolution was moved by Dr. Macdonald, that the present Permanent Clerk be transferred to this office. This whole business was then postponed till to-morrow morning.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, the regular times for meeting and adjournment of this Assembly were ordered to be nine o'clock for meeting and twelve for adjournment, in the morning; half-past two o'clock for meeting, and half-past five for adjournment, in the afternoon.

It was also ordered that the last half-hour in the afternoon be occupied with devotional exercises.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, it was Resolved, That it be the order of the day for to-morrow, (Friday,) at 10 o'clock, A. M., to receive the reports of the Boards and of the Theological Seminaries; and that it be the order of the day for Saturday, to hear the report on the Board of Publication; for Monday, to hear the report on the Board of Domestic Missions; for Tuesday, on Education; for Wednesday, on Foreign Missions; and for Thursday, on Church Extension—each day at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer by the Moderator.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 16.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners were reported, viz., Saurin E. Lane, James Van Keuren, Charles A. Stoddard, J. K. Kost, A. W. Worley, W. M. Donaldson, Matthew Wilson, E. J. Dickey, John Frothingham, A. M. Rodgers, Jacob Liesveld, C. P. Taylor, James Remington, John Estabrook, and M. W. Staples.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Elections, reported that Keen Pruden, from the Presbytery of Passaic, and William Macmillan, from the Presbytery of Oxford, were present with irregular commissions, and that satisfactory evidence had been received of their due appointment, and recommended that they should be admitted to seats. The report was adopted.

The Rev. Elbert S. Porter, D. D., Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, appeared with proper testimonials of his appointment.

The Moderator then announced the appointment of Committees, as follows, viz.

Dr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on Revision of the Book of Discipline, made a report, which was accepted, and put on the docket.

The business postponed from yesterday, relating to the office of Stated

Clerk, was then taken up. It was ascertained, through the Permanent Clerk, that Dr. Leyburn had requested Dr. Engles, of Philadelphia, to tender his resignation of the office to this Assembly; whereupon, on motion of Dr. McPheeters, the resignation was accepted.

Dr. Macdonald then renewed the resolution he proposed yesterday, that the Rev. Alexander T. McGill, D. D., be, and he is hereby transferred from the office of Permanent Clerk to that of Stated Clerk; and that the Assembly do now proceed to the election of a Permanent Clerk.

This resolution was adopted.

Nominations were then made for the vacant office—the roll was called; and the result was announced, that the Rev. William E. Schenck, D. D., had been duly elected Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly.

The order of the day was then taken up, and the Theological Seminaries and Boards presented their reports, which were duly referred.

On motion, Rev. Joseph H. Jones, D. D., presented the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in regard to the Fund for Disabled Ministers.

The report was read, and, on motion, referred to a committee of two ministers and three ruling elders, viz., H. H. Leavitt, A. Telford, J. B. Mitchell, M. W. Staples, and R. W. Smiley.

On motion, Rev. A. Nevin, D. D., was invited to address the Assembly on behalf of the Presbyterian Historical Society.

The Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly, Mr. George H. Van Gelder, presented and read his report, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Stated Clerk was directed to have five hundred copies of the roll of the Assembly printed.

It was made the first order of the day for this afternoon, to call for the narratives upon the State of Religion; the second order, to call for reports on Systematic Benevolence; the third order, to call for Synodical Records; the fourth order, to take up the Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

According to the orders of the day, the Presbyterial Narratives on the State of Religion, the Reports on Systematic Benevolence and the Synodical Records, were called for, and duly referred.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow, to select a place for the next meeting of the Assembly.

The fourth order of the day was then taken up, being the Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline. The report was read, and after discussion was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Revised Book of Discipline submits the following report to the General Assembly.

According to the order of the Assembly of 1861, the Committee convened, in the early part of August of that year, at the City of Allegheny; four ministers and one ruling elder being present—and spent several days on the work that had been twice before submitted to the Assembly. The Committee then adjourned, to meet in Washington City during the autumn of that year. The state of the country at the period appointed for that meeting rendering it impossible, in the judgment of the chairman, for the Committee to hold it profitably, if at all, he made advertisement of that fact, and proposed a meeting of the Committee to be held in Columbus, on the day preceding the present meeting of the Assembly in this place. In the meantime, an edition of the Discipline, as revised by the Committee at Allegheny, was printed by the Board of Publication, and two interleaved copies were sent to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, as far they could be reached, and a sufficient number of copies were reserved to furnish each member of the present Assembly with one. A considerable number of the Presbyteries have made written suggestions to the Committee, some approving the Book as altered; some disapproving certain alterations; some suggesting further alterations, and a very few advising that the work should be arrested for the present.

A meeting of the Committee took place, as previously advertised, at this place, on the 14th instant—five ministers and one ruling elder being present. After considerable conference, the only affirmative conclusion reached, was an order directing the chairman to report to the Assembly, that, in the judgment of the Committee, the Assembly ought to postpone any decisive action on the subject of the Revised Discipline, until its annual meeting in May, 1863.

ROBERT J. BRECKINRIDGE,
Chairman of Committee.

The copies of the Revised Book of Discipline, now in the hands of the Committee, were ordered to be distributed among the members of the Assembly.

Pending the discussion of this resolution, the Assembly proceeded to spend half an hour in devotional exercises, after which the body adjourned.

SATURDAY MORNING, May 17.

The Assembly met at nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Dr. Backus, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported the following overtures:

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of Susquehanna, asking if it is not desirable to inaugurate a sustentation fund.

It was ordered to be placed on the docket.

Overture No. 4, from the Presbytery of Huntingdon, requesting Assembly to transfer Rev. Orr Lawson, of Lexington Presbytery, to Presbytery of Huntingdon—Mr. Lawson not being able, owing to the state of the country, to get his dismissal.

The Committee recommended that this General Assembly

Resolve, That the Presbytery is authorized, in this and like cases, where it is impracticable because of the state of the country, and similar reasons, to obtain a regular dismissal, and Presbytery has clear and satisfactory reasons to know that the minister is in good and regular standing, to proceed to his examination, and receive him into the body, as if he had a regular dismissal—informing the Presbytery from which the minister has come, whenever it may be practicable so to do.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Fort Wayne, requesting the General Assembly to change the times for making annual collections for the Boards of the Church, from the first to the second Sabbath of the months named by the Assembly of 1861, inasmuch as the first Sabbath interferes with the monthly concert collection on or near those days.

It is recommended that the General Assembly

Resolve, That the change requested is not necessary, inasmuch as the last Assembly did not intend to interfere with any other times of making collections for the Boards, but only to secure regular collections in churches which had no regular times for the same.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 6, from certain ministers and ruling elders, requesting the Assembly to decide whether the clause in the Book of Discipline, chap. vii., sec. iii., sub sec. 8, "and which are on record," requires that these reasons are to be spread on the book of the minutes of the Court appealed from, or whether they may be considered as on record when simply on file. And if said clause requires the reasons to be spread on the minutes, whether the judicatory has authority to require that the reasons be couched in decent and respectful language, and contain no offensive reflections or insinuations against the judicatory, as in the case of dissent and protest.

Recommended that this Assembly decide, first, that the reasons must be spread on the minutes; second, that the question respecting the language be answered affirmatively.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 7, a request of the Moderator of the Synod of Upper Missouri, and the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, that, as the Synod failed to meet last fall, according to adjournment, in Kansas City, owing to the distracted state of the country, the Assembly would enjoin upon said Synod to meet in Liberty church, Clay county, Missouri, on the first day of October next, at seven o'clock, P. M.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and the Synod be and is hereby directed to meet accordingly.

This overture and report were ordered to be put on the docket.

Overture No. 8, a request of the Moderator of the Synod of Baltimore, and of the Presbytery of Baltimore, that as, owing to the state of the country, Synod failed to meet, according to adjournment, last fall, the Assembly would direct said Synod to meet in the First Presbyterian church, Baltimore, on the third Thursday of October next, at half-past seven o'clock, P. M.

The overture was ordered to be placed on the docket.

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of New York, requesting the Assembly to abolish, hereafter, from the statistical tables of the printed minutes, all the money columns except that for commissioners and contingent funds of the General Assembly, inasmuch as they are unnecessary, incomplete, and inaccurate.

The Committee recommend that the Assembly decline to abolish said money columns from the tables in the printed minutes.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 10, a memorial of the Synod of St. Paul, requesting the Assembly to abolish the present system of collecting and disbursing the Commissioners' Fund, and the adoption of a new system, by which a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of all the members in attendance on the General Assembly shall be assessed on the whole Church by Presbyteries, according to their number of communicants respectively.

The Committee recommend that it is inexpedient at this time to adopt the plan proposed; but the Assembly recognising the importance of this subject, would earnestly reaffirm the deliverances of 1833 and 1847 on this subject, as found in the Assembly's Digest, page 494, viz.

"Resolved, That it be, and hereby is earnestly recommended to the several Presbyteries and all the ministers under the care of the General Assembly, to urge upon the people under their care, the equity, the importance, and the absolute necessity of contributing to the Commissioners' Fund, in order to secure the attendance of Commissioners at the sessions of the General Assembly, from those sections of the Church which are at the greatest distance from the place of the Assembly's meetings, and which in the divine providence are least able to sustain the burden of the expense, both of time and money, in giving such attendance.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly those Presbyteries that are wealthy, and that have judged it proper to pay the expenses of their own Commissioners, are bound in a peculiar manner to contribute liberally to the general fund, in order that they may bear their due proportion of the expenses of Commissioners who attend from distant Presbyteries, which Presbyteries and their Commissioners, in the providence of God, are not able to pay their own expenses; and this General Assembly would fain hope that the wealthy Presbyteries will esteem it both their privilege and their duty to make such contributions."—Minutes, 1833, p. 496.

"The Committee to whom was referred the consideration of increasing the Commissioners' Fund, would respectfully report, that whereas there is great inequality in bearing the expenses of delegates in going to and returning from the Assembly, and whereas this burden rests chiefly on those who are the least able to bear it, therefore Resolved, That while the Assembly would not interfere with any arrangements that any Presbytery may choose to make to defray the expenses of its own delegates, we would enjoin on the weak Presbyteries to see to it that their churches contribute as largely as possible; and that the more able ones, and especially such as are not very remote from the place where the Assembly meets, be required to have collections taken up in their churches for a common Commissioners' Fund, to aid the weaker Presbyteries in defraying the expenses of their delegates."—Minutes, 1847, p. 395.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 11, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, on the subject of including baptized children in certificates of dismission given to parents.

The Committee recommend, that as the book is now in the hands of a committee of revision, it is not expedient to take any present action.

The Assembly referred this overture to the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline.

Overture No. 12. T. F. Worrell requested the Assembly to answer the following question, viz., Whether, when a person is suspended from the church by a Session, and restored by the Presbytery, the notice of appeal by the Session continues the person under suspension; and if so, how long can such suspension be continued without the appeal being issued?

The Committee recommend that the following answer be returned, viz. That the notice of appeal does continue the person under suspension until the appeal is issued, which must be at the next meeting of the upper Court.

The recommendation was adopted.

Rev. Jacob Belville appeared as an additional minister from the second Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The Assembly took up the first order of the day, viz., the choice of a place for its next meeting.

On motion,

Resolved, That a majority of the whole number of votes be required in order to a decision, and if at the first vote no such majority is cast for any place, only the two places receiving the highest number of votes shall afterwards be considered as in nomination.

Nominations were then made, and the vote cast with the following result:

Washington, D. C.,	74 votes.	Peoria, Ill.	94 votes.
Louisville, Ky.	9 "	Newark, N. J.	54 "

On the second vote, Peoria was chosen as the place of the next meeting.

On motion of the Rev. Robert Davidson, D. D., the Rev. John M. Krebs, D. D., was appointed to fill the vacancy created in the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline by the retirement of Dr. J. H. Thornwell.

An invitation was received for the members of the Assembly to visit the State Lunatic Asylum in this city. The invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly tendered for the courtesy.

The order of the day for ten o'clock was then taken up, being the Report of the Committee on the Board of Publication. Rev. S. B. McPheeters, D. D., chairman of the Standing Committee on this Board, presented a report, with resolutions; after which the Rev. Dr. Schenck, Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly on the general interests and work of the Board.

Rev. Dr. McAboy offered the following as an amendment to the report:

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be instructed to examine the matter of the expenses of the working machinery of the Board, to see if it cannot be rendered more inexpensive, and to report the same to the next General Assembly.

It was made the second order of the day for Monday next, to hear delegates who may be present from corresponding bodies.

An invitation was received from Rev. Warren Jenkins, chaplain to the Ohio Penitentiary in this city, on behalf of its Warden, J. A. Prentice, Esq., for the members of the Assembly to visit that Institution. The invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly proffered.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY MORNING, May 19.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of Saturday were read, corrected, and approved.

Mr. Samuel H. Cook, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Albany, and A. Karr, ruling elder from the Presbytery of New Albany, took their seats as members of the Assembly.

Resolved, That it be the first order of the day for this afternoon to take up the unfinished business of the Board of Publication, and that the Secretary of that Board be permitted at that time to make a further statement in regard to the affairs and operations of that Board.

Dr. J. C. Backus, chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, made a further report, as follows:

Overture No. 1, from the Presbytery of St. Louis, to take measures to provide our German population with a periodical containing religious and missionary intelligence in their own language.

It is recommended that this General Assembly resolve, that in its judgment the publication of a German periodical is eminently desirable, and that the Board of Publication be directed to take into consideration the practicability and best means of securing the same, and, if practicable, to have it undertaken.

This Overture was placed upon the docket.

Overture No. 2, a memorial of the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia, requesting that the General Assembly provide a German Hymn Book to meet the necessities of the numerous German churches in our connection.

It is recommended that this General Assembly recommend the Board of Publication, with such assistance as may be needed, to provide, if practicable, a German Hymn Book for the German churches in our connection.

The Overture was placed on the docket.

Overture No. 13, from the Presbyteries of Ogdensburg, Madison, and California, on the subject of the re-union of the Old and New-school General Assemblies.

It is recommended that the following minute be adopted, viz, In the judgment of this General Assembly it is inexpedient at this time to take any definite action with reference to a re-union of the New and Old-school Presbyterian Churches, and that the consideration of the Overtures on this subject be postponed till the next meeting of the General Assembly, with the assurance that that body will kindly consider any proposition for such re-union as may then be properly before them.

The Overture was placed upon the docket.

Overture No. 15, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, urging the General Assembly to have the Record brought within reach of the feeble churches.

It is recommended that this General Assembly request the Board of Publication to furnish the Home and Foreign Record to all the churches at the lowest price at which it is now furnished to any.

This overture was adopted.

Dr. George Junkin offered the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to have printed and distributed, with all practicable speed, three thousand copies of the new Book of Discipline, and transmit at least one copy to every minister in the Church.

2. Resolved, That the Presbyteries be, and hereby are enjoined to take into consideration the same at their fall meetings, and to transmit to the Chairman of the Committee their suggestions on the whole subject.

These resolutions were placed upon the docket.

A paper was communicated by the Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, D.D., which on motion was read, and is as follows:

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Columbus, Ohio:

It is now just nine years since I was elected by the General Assembly one of the first Professors of its Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky. Being also, by charter granted by the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, one of the first Trustees of that Institution, I have devoted myself with great earnestness, and such success as it has pleased God to give me, to the work of founding, endowing, and managing that Institution, and to the instruction of nine successive annual classes of its students.

Suddenly, and without any provocation on my part, tending towards such accusations, but solely as the effect of personal malignity and public disloyalty on the part of Thomas A. Hoyt, and Stuart Robinson, both of them ministers in regular standing in the Church under the care of this venerable Court, and the latter now sitting as a member of this body, I find myself accused of immoralities and crimes, by both of them, in the most offensive terms, and in the most public manner, the bare suspicion of whose perpetration by me, would render it unfit that I should hold my office of Professor; and concerning reparation for which atrocious accusations, my direct and immediate way of redress as a Professor, brings me to the bar of this General Assembly.

These accusations on the part of Thomas A. Hoyt, are contained in a publication signed by him, dated March 7, 1862, and published first in the Evening Bulletin and Daily Journal, both of Louisville, Kentucky; and about that time, and afterwards, in other public journals. The accusations on the part of Stuart Robinson, are contained in numerous publications, one of which has been distributed in pamphlet form to the members of this Assembly, utterly shameless in its character; but they were first published in the Louisville Daily Journal, over his signature, about the 7th of March, and afterwards very extensively in the public journals.

It is, more particularly, that aspect of these disgraceful accusations, intended to implicate my official character and conduct as a minister teaching theology by appointment of the Assembly, to which I direct the attention of this tribunal; at the same time I would prefer that the Deliverance of the Assembly should embrace every charge, of every sort, contained in the publications now brought to its notice, and which I solemnly declare before God, are, without exception, false and scandalous.

The most distinct of the accusations made by Mr. Hoyt, in the sense above stated, are, that as a theological Professor I have used my position, and the sacred funds of my Institution, as the means of hurling firebrands among the churches that raised me to that position, and contributed those funds. The most distinct accusations of Mr. Robinson, in the sense above stated—some of them clearly put forward, some artfully insinuated in verbose sentences, are, that as Professor of Theology, I had, by art, in an unmanly and unchristian way, hounded on popular passion against my brethren;—that as a Professor of Theology, and a teacher of religion generally, I had used a position given to me by the Church, to inculcate political dogmas;—that, as a Professor, I had taken advantage of the pulpit and theological chair as a politician;—and that I had claimed the solemnity and dignity of a Theological Quarterly, and a Theological Seminary, to invest my political views with a fictitious solemnity.

The substance of these charges is, that being a minister of the gospel, exercising the office of a Professor of Theology, I have abused my position, and perverted sacred funds to the promotion of wicked and cruel ends, degrading both the pulpit and the theological chair, to the advancement of improper public objects, and unworthy personal aims. Against these libellous accusations, I come to the bar of this supreme tribunal of the Church, during whose good pleasure I hold my office of Professor of Theology, and pleading that they are false—and that within the personal knowledge of Thomas A. Hoyt and Stuart Robinson, who have made them—I ask the Assembly to make such a Deliverance in the premises, as in their judgment righteousness demands, and as my character, services, and office entitle me to expect. And in order to relieve the case, as far as I can, of all embarrassment, I hereby resign into the hands of the General Assembly, my office of Professor in the Danville Theological Seminary, desiring the resignation to take effect at the end of the current Seminary year, namely, on the 1st of September, 1862.

I deem it to be not only my clear right, under the circumstances which exist, to bring this matter in this form before the General Assembly, but my clear duty, both to myself and to the Assembly, to do so. What I have done, appears to me to have been not only right and commendable, but of that imperative necessity, that its rancorous condemnation involves impious disloyalty to the country in its hour of extreme peril, and the betrayal of God's cause and ordinances, as the Ruler of the universe. No Christian man can, with a good conscience, hold any office which forbids him to attempt such service as I have been traduced for rendering to my country. And no tribunal of the Church of God can, without sin, refuse to protect the character of its children and servants, when they are pursued with ferocious and organized calumny, for doing that which is right in itself, unto which they are shut up by Divine Providence, and which is in full accordance with the sentiments of the Church herself.

I file herewith the action of the Board of Trustees, and that of the Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary, with regard to the matters involved in this memorial. The second of these two papers discloses an action not yet completed; and it need not to have been filed now, but for a false and injurious statement concerning it, contained in the libellous publication of Mr. Robinson, which has been circulated amongst the members now sitting in this Assembly.

ROBERT J. BRECKINRIDGE.

The paper was referred to a special Committee of seven, as follows: Messrs. H. H. Leavitt, Dr. James M. Macdonald, George Marshall, M. W. Staples, James McDougall, H. K. Clarke, and A. B. Belknap.

The order of the day was postponed to allow Dr. R. J. Breckinridge to read a paper on the state of the country, which, after being heard, was ordered to be placed on the docket, and was made the first order of the day for Thursday afternoon.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock, A. M., viz., the report of the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, was presented by Dr. J. M. Macdonald, its Chairman. The Rev. T. L. Janeway, D. D., Secretary of the Board, was heard in regard to its operations. The report and resolutions appended were then adopted, and are as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, respectfully report that the Minutes of the Board, and of its Executive Committee, have not been put into their hands. They have carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board, and recommend to the General Assembly that

1. It approve the Report, and direct the same to be published by the Board.

2. The Assembly gratefully acknowledge the signal tokens of divine goodness to the Board, in enabling it to pass with safety the trying changes of the past year; and especially in enabling it to reduce its indebtedness, which in November last was $28,000, to less than $5000, and greatly to reduce the office expenses, whilst at the same time adding 121 new names to the list of missionaries in commission a year ago, and paying all the missionaries, as far as they had reported, to the end of the fiscal year. Verily God has granted to his people, in these troublous times, the heart to devise liberal things, and blessed be his holy name.

3. The Assembly also notice, with gratitude to God, the spirit of self-denial, on the part of our missionaries, enabling them to submit patiently to the inconveniences arising from delay in the payments due them, and to the reduction of their salaries.

4. That the Assembly bow humbly to the will of the great Ruler of nations, in those calamities which he has permitted to visit the land, whereby missionary labour has been interrupted, missionaries, in some instances, driven from the field, and the work of years destroyed; and bewail the sins and unfaithfulness which have provoked them; but in the fear and strength of the Lord, will go forward and endeavour to repair the waste places, and build up the walls which have been thrown down.

5. The Assembly take sincere pleasure in noticing the substantial aid which ladies of our churches have rendered to this cause by articles of clothing furnished to missionary families. The aggregate value of these donations during the past year was over $16,000, and was in addition to the salaries of the missionaries among whom they were distributed.

6. In view of the changes which have taken place in the field of the Executive Committee located at Louisville, as referred to in the report, the Assembly hereby direct the discontinuance of said Committee, and further direct the discontinuance of Advisory Committees wherever they exist, and the Board hereafter to conduct, throughout the entire field, its work as formerly, through the Presbyteries.

7. The Assembly solemnly call the attention of the Church to the greatness of the work in which, by the command of her ascended Lord, she is engaged, and the increased proportions it is destined very soon to assume, by the return of prosperity to the nation, and greater stability of our civil institutions, which we now, by the blessing of God, confidently expect—a work which, in addition to assisting young or feeble churches already established, is no less than to supply with the stated means of grace the teeming millions who are to fill up the vast territories of the continent. To accomplish this great work, the Board of Domestic Missions has been constituted; and this General Assembly would devoutly commend it to the prayers and patronage of all our people, and especially invite the hearty coöperation of every pastor and session in providing the material aid which the exigencies of the cause demand.

8. The Assembly earnestly recommend the appointment of a greater number of itinerating missionaries, for new and sparsely settled regions, to explore and advise as to the most favourable localities for permanent congregations; and also recommend the Presbyteries to take measures for establishing and sustaining an itineracy for the feebler missionary churches and more destitute portions within their bounds.

9. The Assembly enjoin it upon the Board, hereafter to regard the order of a former Assembly, to send up its minutes for examination.

On motion, it was made the order of the day for Friday, at 3 o'clock, P. M., to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries.

The second order of the day, to hear delegates from corresponding bodies, was taken up. Rev. S. T. Stewart, from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, addressed the body in the interchange of fraternal salutations, and the Moderator responded.

The Rev. Elbert S. Porter, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, likewise addressed the Assembly, and was responded to by the Moderator.

Dr. G. W. Musgrave, from the Judicial Committee, communicated a letter from Mr. William B. Guild of Newark, N. J., requesting that a suitable member be appointed to take charge of his case before this court, Mr. Guild being unavoidably prevented from attending.

On motion, the Rev. S. S. Sheddan was appointed to take charge of the case on behalf of Mr. Guild.

Dr. James Hoge offered the following:

Resolved, That the Clerk shall cause three hundred ballots, for the election of the several Boards and Seminaries, to be printed for the use of the members, and the ballots shall contain the names of all the persons who have been nominated.

Pending the consideration of this resolution, the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to Mr. David Conger for the remainder of the sessions of the Assembly; also, to Dr. R. J. Breckinridge until Wednesday. The report was approved.

It was made the second order of the day for Friday afternoon to receive reports on Synodical Records.

The Rev. Septimus Tustin, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, presented a report and resolution, which were adopted, and are as follows:

The Committee of Correspondence with Foreign Bodies beg leave to submit the following nominations for confirmation by the General Assembly:

To the General Synod of the Protestant Reformed Dutch Church, Rev. Alfred Nevin, D. D.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, Rev. D. X. Junkin, D. D.

To the General Association of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, D. D.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, Rev. J. C. Baekus, D. D.

Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of this Assembly that the Rev. Robert Watts, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, is about to visit Ireland, the place of his nativity, therefore,

Resolved, That the said Rev. Robert Watts be, and he hereby is, authorized to represent this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in these United States of America, in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

The order of the day was then taken up, being the unfinished business on the Board of Publication, the question being on the resolution offered on Saturday last, by Dr. L. R. McAboy.

The Secretary of the Board, the Rev. W. E. Schenck, D. D. was further heard.

Dr. S. B. McPheeters offered the following as a substitute for the resolution of Dr. McAboy:

Resolved, That in view of criticisms made in this and former General Assemblies, a Committee of nine, ministers and ruling elders, of which the Moderator of this General Assembly shall be chairman, be appointed to make a thorough examination of the affairs of the Board of Publication, and report to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That said Committee shall meet in the city of Philadelphia, at the call of its chairman, and the Board is hereby directed to give free and full opportunity to the Committee in carrying out the objects of its appointment, and any information the Committee may desire to procure. And all persons from any part of the Church shall have full opportunity, and are requested, either in person or by writing, to present to the Committee any objections or doubts they may entertain in regard to the plans and operations of the Board.

Resolved, 3. That the Board of Publication be directed to pay the travelling and other necessary expenses of the members of this Committee from its treasury.

The substitute was adopted.

The original report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was then adopted, as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, beg leave to report: That having carefully examined the Report of the Board, together with the minutes of the Board, and the minutes of the Executive Committee, they recommend the approval of these minutes, as far as written, and would respectfully submit the following resolutions to the Assembly for its adoption:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly continues to regard the Board of Publication as a most important and efficient agency of the Church in disseminating and defending divine truth, and approves of the wisdom, prudence, and energy with which the affairs of the Board have been conducted during the past year.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly is especially gratified to learn that the Board has entered with so much zeal and efficiency on the most important work of supplying the army and navy of the United States, and also prisoners of war, with suitable religious reading, and that, notwithstanding the troubles of the country, it has been enabled to employ so many Colporteurs, who devote themselves to this new and exceedingly interesting field. And the Assembly, in view of the magnitude and urgency of this work, earnestly recommends the churches under its care to sustain the Board by liberal contributions to its Colportage and Distribution Funds.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly is pleased to find that the Board is actively engaged in publishing books of suitable character for juvenile reading and Sabbath-school libraries, and that it be recommended to the Board, in view of the present exigencies of the Church, to furnish a still cheaper edition of Sabbath-school books.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly renews its recommendation of the Sabbath-school Visitor to our congregations as a most efficient aid in the work of Sabbath-school instruction.

A paper was communicated by Dr. Stuart Robinson in reference to the paper before received from Dr. R. J. Breckinridge. It was read, and is as follows:

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 19, 1862.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly.

Dear Sir—The General Assembly having to-day received, read, and referred to a select Committee, an extraordinary letter from Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge, concerning a personal controversy now pending between himself of the first part, and Rev. Messrs. Hoyt, Robinson, and others, of the second part; which letter contains charges against the undersigned grossly unjust, and, if allowed to pass unchallenged upon your records, obviously injurious to the good name of four ministers of the Synod of Kentucky: the undersigned begs leave, therefore, through you, to submit to the Assembly his solemn remonstrance against further proceedings in the case, with the grounds of it: and he asks that this shall receive the same direction, and the same place upon your records as the letter referred to.

1. The undersigned denies that any higher obligation rests upon the Assembly to protect the character of Professors in its Seminaries than that of the pastors of its churches; and much less can there be any obligation to adopt extraordinary methods for the protection of a Professor's good name at the expense of the good name of four pastors of the Church.

2. That, in the present case, the call upon the Assembly is for not only extraordinary, but extra-constitutional interference, is manifest enough, when it is remembered that, on the one hand, the assault upon these pastors involves charges of moral delinquency which the constitution of the Church requires to be tried by judicial process before the Presbytery to which they belong, and not decided by mere resolution of the General Assembly; and, on the other hand, the resignation of a Professorship, by means of which this case purports to come before the Assembly, should, according to the Constitution of the Danville Seminary, be laid before the Board of Directors of the Seminary on six months notice, to be by them referred to the Assembly.

3. And what renders this call for extraordinary and extra-constitutional methods of procedure the more unreasonable, is the notorious fact, that the whole difficulty was begun by Dr. Breckinridge himself in the first instance, by a gross assault upon four of his brethren, in a card appealing to the whole country against them. And they have published nothing, except in self-defence—first, against the groundless charge of his card; and secondly, in response to a highly injurious article in the Danville Review, which article of itself should exclude its author from all claim upon any special sympathy and countenance of Christian men. And the undersigned respectfully submits to the candour of the General Assembly, whether one who has stirred up a disgraceful strife with his brethren, and appealed to the tribunal of public opinion through the press, now, when his assault is successfully repelled before the tribunal of his own choosing, has any claim to an appeal, in this extraordinary manner, to the highest tribunal of Christ's church, for a decision to set aside the verdict of the public against him.

The undersigned, therefore, solemnly remonstrates against any action of this Assembly in the premises, which may add to the damage already done to religion, by disturbing this Court and the Church with a disgraceful personal quarrel, except under the restrictions of judicial trial according to the forms of the constitution. At the same time, however, he does not mean by this remonstrance to waive any right, should the Assembly entertain the question further, to defend himself and assail his accuser, within the limits of any method of procedure adopted. Nor does he feel the least concern touching the question whether he shall be able to justify his conduct in the premises before any impartial tribunal.

In behalf of Rev. T. A. Hoyt, who is not present, the undersigned requests that the card of Mr. Hoyt, of May 11, explanatory of his course, be made a part of this letter, and receive the same direction that this letter may receive.

Truly yours,

STUART ROBINSON.

Editors True Presbyterian:

The accompanying card is intended for the Philadelphia Presbyterian, but the delay incident upon its transmission to and from so great a distance, as well as the limited circulation of that paper in this State, induce me to ask its insertion in your issue of this week.

Truly yours,

T. A. H.

Louisville, May 11, 1862.

For the Presbyterian.

I hoped when I published my card of March 14, in reply to Dr. Breckinridge's unprovoked attack upon me, that I had so framed my answer, that while it effectually disposed of his accusations, it would at the same time preclude the necessity of my reappearing in the public prints, to which I am greatly averse, especially in collision with an aged minister of the gospel.

I was not shaken in my determination to avoid any further conflict with Dr. Breckinridge, even by his violent abuse of me in the late number of the Danville Review; nor by his efforts to pervert the meaning of my card, nor by his threat to resign his professorship at the next Assembly, in consequence of what I have "directly charged," and Dr. Robinson "seems to intimate;" nor by his insinuation that he no longer regards me as a gentleman, nor by his application to me of the epithets "ruffian and barbarian;" nor by his sneer at "Southern chivalry," as though utterly oblivious of his own famous Sumner letter, so chivalrous and intensely Southern. But the recent action of the Board of Trustees of Danville Seminary, which action was ordered to be published in the Presbyterian, obliges me reluctantly to ask room in your columns again, to set myself right before the Christian public.

"The attention of the Board" having "been called to certain publications recently made by responsible persons, in which an injurious imputation is cast upon Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge," that body adopted hypothetical resolutions in his favour to the effect that IF IT WERE CHARGED that Dr. Breckinridge, as Trustee, had mismanaged the funds, or as preacher or professor, had discussed politics from the pulpit or the chair, then it was not true, &c.

In order to relieve me from even this conditional censure, it will only be necessary to show what I said, and why I said it.

As to what I said, it is not true that I have either directly or indirectly charged "that Dr. Breckinridge, acting as trustee, has perverted the funds of the Seminary to improper uses." The Board of Trustees could not be so persuaded by Dr. Breckinridge himself, but expressly declare that they were unwilling to believe it.

In the next place, it is not true that I either said, or "meant," that Dr. Breckinridge, "in his capacity as Professor, has from his chair, inculcated his political opinions, or that in his office as a preacher in the Seminary, he has used the pulpit for such purposes." All these are utter misrepresentations of my language and intention. What I really did say and mean, will appear presently, albeit Dr. Breckinridge warns me that he will admit no "gloss," or explanation whatever. But, now, as to the reason of my saying anything at all about Dr. Breckinridge.

He says it was because of his loyalty; but I made no allusion whatever to his loyalty, nor to anything else that he had said or done, except his gross, personal assault on me, which assault, by reason of my official relations, I regarded as a wrong to my church, just as the attacks on the other three pastors were injuries done to their churches. Viewing the matter in that light, I expressed my regrets "that a theological professor should use his position, and the sacred funds of his institution, as the means of hurling firebrands among the churches that raised him to that position, and contributed those funds." And lest any ambiguity should attach to the use of the word "funds," in sending my card to the Philadelphia Presbyterian, and afterwards to the True Presbyterian, I substituted the word "prestige," thus avoiding, as I thought, the possibility of misconception, and conveying exactly the meaning that I intended, viz., not that Dr. Breckinridge had, "as a trustee, perverted the funds of the Seminary;" nor that he had preached or lectured on politics, but that standing at the head of Danville Seminary, an institution which had been largely endowed by the four churches thus assailed through their pastors, he had published in numerous papers in Kentucky and elsewhere, a violent personal assault upon the pastors of those churches, and that apparently for the purpose of, if possible, unsettling their relations and driving them from the State. It was the more pertinent that I should make this answer, inasmuch as the scholarships in Danville Seminary have, to a great extent, been founded by two gentlemen in my congregation, in addition to other liberal donations from the rest of the church. I submit it to "the tribunal of public opinion," as well as to "a tribunal singularly illustrious," whether this were not an answer proper for me to make to such an assault; and whether it were entirely unbecoming in me to express my sense of the bitter mortification with which the pastors and churches involved in this matter, as well as the pastors and churches in Kentucky generally, contemplate his course, and their deep conviction that he has missed the noblest opportunity of his life to honour his Master, to serve the Church, and to win true glory for himself.

They regarded the present as a great occasion, on which they looked for Dr. Breckinridge to stand forth, venerable in age, and illustrious in his past life, and perform the gracious work of pouring oil upon the troubled waters. Struggling with the temptations of their novel situation, they expected to be taught by him; to hear him repeat, with authority and power, the language of his Master, "Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's." They fondly thought that he would come back for a moment from the confines of eternity, and like the aged apostle John, would stretch forth his hands, and cry, "Little children, love one another! Little children, love one another!"

And further, all conservative men in the Presbyterian Church had a right to expect that Dr. Breckinridge, by reason of his antecedents, and the antecedents of his Seminary, would not appear to give countenance to the action of the last General Assembly, which action the Synod of Kentucky pronounced to be "repugnant to the word of God, as that word is interpreted in our Confession of Faith;" and finally, they had a right to expect that Danville Seminary would hold itself aloof from the conflict of earthly passions and carnal weapons; that when the waves of civil strife ran high, this sacred spot would, like a great neutral haven, receive the voyagers from the North, from the South, from the East, and from the West, and join them together in the friendly commerce of Christian love.

THOMAS A. HOYT.

Mr. Robinson's paper was referred to the same Committee with that of Dr. Breckinridge.

The Assembly spent half an hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned, with prayer by Rev. R. Davidson, D. D.

TUESDAY MORNING, May 20.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that Rev. R. Howard Wallace had appeared as a Delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, and presented proper testimonials.

Dr. G. W. Musgrave, from the Judicial Committee, reported Case No. 1, being an appeal and complaint of William B. Guild. After being amended, on motion of Dr. Dumont, and with the consent of the chairman, the report was adopted, as follows:

The appeal and complaint of William B. Guild against the action of the Synod of New Jersey, in appointing a Committee to visit the Third Church, Newark, and ascertain whether any of the ruling elders are unacceptable to the majority of the church.

The Committee recommend that inasmuch as the appellant does not complain of the action of the Synod in appointing the Committee, and as it is apparent that no opportunity has yet occurred for the Committee to report their action to the Synod, the Assembly ought not to entertain the question, whether the Committee have erred in their proceedings, until the Synod shall have heard and acted upon their report, and therefore that the appeal and complaint be dismissed.

The order of the day was postponed to allow the Judicial Committee to make a further report.

Dr. Musgrave, from the Judicial Committee, reported Case No. 3, being the appeal of Rev. C. J. Abbott against the action of the Synod of Missouri. The Committee reported as follows:

The Committee are verbally informed, that this case originated in the Presbytery of St Louis, upon charges preferred by common fame against the appellant. The charges were sustained in the Presbytery, and on appeal to the Synod, were also sustained by the Synod of Missouri.

The Committee were also verbally informed, that an appeal was taken from the action from the Synod, which in due course ought to have been presented to the last Assembly; that the record was forwarded to the city of Philadelphia, but in consequence of the absence from that body of the Commissioner to whose care the record was committed, it failed to be presented; and the appellant now asks that his appeal may be entered, and that it be referred to the next General Assembly for trial.

The Committee recommend that the request of the appellant be granted.

The report was adopted, and the case referred to the next General Assembly.

Also, Judicial case No. 4, being the protest and complaint of Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge and sixteen others, against the Synod of Kentucky, respecting the exercise of suffrage in the election of a pastor.

The report was adopted, and the case put upon the docket.

Dr. Backus, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 16, from the Presbytery of Chippewa, requesting the General Assembly to transfer the Rev. George Ainslie, a minister of the Presbytery of Indian, Synod of Arkansas, to the Presbytery of Chippewa. Mr. Ainslie not being able on account of the disturbed state of the country to obtain a regular dismission from that Presbytery to the Presbytery of Chippewa, where he has been labouring successfully, and to one of the churches of which he has received a call.

It is recommended that the General Assembly resolve that the Presbytery is authorized in this and like cases, where it is impracticable because of the state of the country, or similar reasons, to obtain a regular dismission, and Presbytery has clear and satisfactory reasons to know that the minister is in good and regular standing, to proceed to his examination and receive him into the body, as if he had a regular dismission; informing the Presbytery from which he has come whenever it may be practicable.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 19, being a memorial of the Rev. George D. Stewart and others, that the General Assembly would take action, and give relief in the case of Rev. Michael Hummer, who, having been deposed by the Presbytery of Iowa, had been restored by the Presbytery of Highland, against the remonstrance of the Presbytery of Iowa, just as if he was an independent minister.

It is recommended that this General Assembly declare that it is irregular and unconstitutional for any Presbytery to receive and restore a member of another Presbytery, who has been deposed; and therefore the action of the Presbytery of Highland, in restoring Mr. Hummer, was improper; and the Presbytery of Highland is directed to reconsider its action, and proceed according to the requirements of the constitution.

The report was adopted.

The order of the day was taken up, being the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education. The Rev. John W. Scott, D. D., presented the report.

On a motion to accept and adopt the report, the Rev. William Chester, D. D., Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly.

Rev. D. M. Maclise offered a preamble and resolution as an addition to the report.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the grateful acknowledgments of this Assembly be offered to the Railroad Companies, who, by reduction of the usual fares, have facilitated the attendance of the members of this body upon its sessions.

An invitation was received from Dr. Lord for members of Assembly to visit the State Institution for the Blind, of which he has charge. This invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly voted.

A letter was received from Colonel Henry B. Carrington, inviting the members of Assembly to visit Camp Thomas on Wednesday afternoon. The invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly voted.

The Assembly then adjourned.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. L. R. McAbey.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to hear Rev. R. Howard Wallace, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of New York.

The Committee on Commissions reported that Mr. Samuel Linn had appeared as a Commissioner from Huntingdon Presbytery, and had been enrolled.

Rev. D. M. Maclise asked and obtained leave to substitute another paper for the one presented this forenoon. His substitute was as follows:

Whereas, The Board of Education is doing an important work in aiding candidates for the ministry in obtaining a suitable education, and ought to be liberally supported; yet as it appears that young men are often taken under the care of the Board with scarcely any previous training in literary studies, and without having afforded any proof of talent, zeal, piety, and fitness for the gospel ministry, and that in consequence many young men receive the Church's funds without ever returning any equivalent; it is

Resolved, That the Board of Education be instructed, and it is hereby instructed, to afford no pecuniary aid to young men until they shall be at least prepared for entering the Freshman Class in college, except in extraordinary cases.

This paper was referred to the Committee to revise the By-laws of the Board of Education.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Macdonald offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the following be added to the rules and regulations of the Board of Education:

"Every person on a scholarship shall forward, or cause to be forwarded, annually, a report from his teacher or teachers, to the Presbytery under whose care he is, showing his standard for piety, talents, diligence, scholarship, prudence, economy, health, and general influence."

The whole report on the Board of Education as thus amended, was then adopted. [Afterwards reconsidered and amended.]

A resolution offered yesterday by Dr. J. Hoge, and left as unfinished business, was then taken up, and adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the Clerk shall cause three hundred ballots for the elections of the several Boards and Seminaries, to be printed for the use of the members; and the ballots shall contain the names of all persons who have been nominated.

Overture No. 8 was taken from the docket. The time and place mentioned for the meeting of the Synod of Baltimore in the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures, were changed to "the church in Harrisburg, on the third Tuesday of October next, at 7½ o'clock, P. M." The report as thus amended was adopted.

Overture No. 7, in regard to the next meeting of the Synod of Upper Missouri was taken from the docket. The time was changed to the "8th day of October next," and the report as thus amended was adopted.

Overture No. 13, respecting the union of the Old and New-school General Assemblies, was taken from the docket.

Rev. Dr. L. H. Christian moved to strike out all after the words "with the assurance," and it was so ordered.

Dr. Dumont moved to strike out the next preceding sentence, beginning, "and that the consideration," &c., and it was so ordered.

Dr. L. R. McAboy moved to lay the whole subject on the table, which motion was lost.

The motion of Dr. Dumont was adopted.

The remainder of the recommendation of the Committee was then adopted, as follows:

In the judgment of this General Assembly it is inexpedient at this time to take any definite action with reference to a re-union of the New and Old-school Presbyterian churches.

Overture No. 2 was taken from the docket.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly proceeded to spend a half hour in devotional exercises, and afterwards adjourned, with prayer by Rev. John L. McKee.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, May 21.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read, amended, and adopted.

Dr. J. C. Backus, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 18, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

From the churches of Ulrichsville, New Philadelphia, and Evans Creek, asking a change in the boundary between the Synods of Wheeling and Ohio, so as to throw those churches within the bounds of the Presbytery of Steubenville.

The Committee recommend that the boundary between said Synods be so changed as to extend the north line of the Steubenville Presbytery due west to the Tuscarawas river, then follow the river to the north-west corner of Rush township, Tuscarawas county, and then follow the west and south lines of that township to the line as now existing, so as to include the churches of Urichsville and New Philadelphia, and that the church of Evans Creek remain in its present connection until the Presbyteries and Synods interested can be consulted.

Also, Overture No. 21, from the Synod of Philadelphia, relating to the provision for aged and disabled ministers—which was referred to the Special Committee on this subject.

Also, Overture No. 20, being a memorial of certain members of the Synod of Wisconsin, requesting a transfer of the Belgian mission in Wisconsin from the Domestic to the Foreign Board.

The Committee recommended that this General Assembly authorize and recommend the transfer, as requested.

The recommendation was adopted.

Dr. G. W. Musgrave, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Judicial Case No. 2, being the appeal and complaint of Smiley Shepard against the action of the Synod of Illinois, by which the act of the Presbytery of Bloomington, in dissolving the second church at Union Grove, was sustained.

The Committee recommended that the trial be deferred to the next Assembly.

The recommendation was adopted.

Also, Judicial Case No. 5, the appeal of Rev. John Turbitt from the decision of the Synod of Illinois, by which the action of the Presbytery of Peoria, in deposing the appellant, was affirmed.

The Committee reported as follows:

This appeal appears to have been regularly taken, but was not lodged with the Clerk of this Assembly before the close of the second day's sessions. (See chap. vii., sec. iii., sub sec. 7.) The Committee have reason to believe that the appellant was under the impression that the present meeting of this Assembly was to be at Dayton, in this state, and by forwarding his papers to that place, they were delayed, so that they were not received here until after the end of the fourth day's sessions. Under these circumstances, the Committee recommend that the appeal be docketed. And as it satisfactorily appears to the Committee that the appellant has been providentially hindered from attendance at this session, they further recommend that the case be deferred to the next Assembly for trial.

The report and recommendation were adopted.

Mr. D. L. Collier, chairman of the Finance Committee, reported, and the report was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Finance Committee to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, makes the following report, to wit:

That they have examined the report of the Treasurer, and compared the statements of account therein presented, with the books kept by him, as also the items of interest received upon the several investments, and find them correct, as stated.

The amount received by the Treasurer from all sources, during the last financial year, viz., from May 1, 1861, to May 1, 1862, was $20,668.19, which, with the balance in his hands from previous year, of $3,784.32, makes the total receipts for the year	$24,452 51
The expenditures during the year were	16,558 95
Leaving a balance of	$7,893 56

The Report of the Treasurer embraces the following statements :

- No. 1. Abstract of receipts and expenditures.
 2. Balance-sheet from Ledger.
 3. The items which compose the cash balance on hand.
 4. Statement of income derived from bonds and mortgages.
 5. Statement of Permanent Funds, showing a balance uninvested, of $143.70.
 6. Tabular statement of investments held by the Assembly, amounting to $115,516.22—all of which is esteemed to be perfectly safe, and worth the amount above stated.

The Committee suggest to the Assembly, that it appears from the certificate annexed to the several statements of the Treasurer, that the items of account have been carefully compared with the books and vouchers in the hands of the Treasurer, and reported upon by the Committee of Accounts and Finance, as connected with the several Boards, and found to be in all respects correct.

The Committee report the following resolution :

Resolved, That this report be adopted, and that the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

Rev. R. Davidson, D. D., offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence :

Whereas, The General Assembly of the New-school Presbyterians is now in session in the city of Cincinnati; and whereas it is desirable to cultivate amicable relations with our brethren of the Presbyterian family, even though a closer union may seem, for the present, inexpedient; therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly take steps to open a correspondence with the Assembly aforesaid, as has been done with the Cumberland Presbyterians to our mutual edification, and that one of our number be chosen to visit the Assembly in Cincinnati, conveying to them the assurance of our Christian regard, and inviting the sending of a like delegate to this body, to the end that we may maintain and exhibit the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace, that the world may believe in the mission of our common and exalted Head.

Rev. R. Davidson, D. D., Chairman of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented and read its report, which was accepted, and made the order of the day for this afternoon at three o'clock.

The order of the day was taken up, and the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was presented by Rev. J. M. Stevenson, D. D. Rev. J. C. Lowrie, D. D., Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly.

The Rev. John H. Morrison, missionary from Northern India, was on motion, invited to address the Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. B. F. Stead.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Elections, reported that Mr. R. Tunstall, from the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, was present without a commission, but has presented sufficient evidences of his election. The Committee recommended that he be permitted to take a seat. The report was adopted.

The unfinished business of the morning was taken up, being the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

At 3 o'clock P. M. the order of the day was taken up, being the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries. The resolutions appended to the report were then adopted scritim, after which the whole report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries submit the following report, viz.,

They have had before them the Annual Reports of the Trustees and Directors of the Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey; of the Western Seminary at Allegheny, Pennsylvania; of the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky; and of the Northwest Seminary, at Chicago, Illinois, and have carefully examined the same. A brief summary of their contents is as follows:

1. The Seminary at Princeton. The corps of Professors is full, and the number of students 170, of whom 41 have completed the usual course of study, and one has deceased. Six or seven of the Senior Class have offered themselves for the Foreign Missionary work, and an unusually large proportion of the other classes contemplate the same destination.

While the instruction of the Seminary has been satisfactory and gratifying in its results, the Trustees report no less prosperity in its financial department. The financial year closed with a balance in favour of the Seminary, of $4352.67. In addition to this, they state that at the late semi-centennial celebration, Messrs. Robert L. and Alexander Stuart, of New York, presented the munificent donation to the funds, of $50,000.

2. The Western Seminary at Allegheny. The corps of Professors is full, and the number of students 158, of whom 33 completed the regular course of study; 2 have deceased; 5 or more have devoted themselves to the work of Foreign Missions. The proficiency of the classes has been gratifying.

The Trustees report, that notwithstanding the pressure of the times, they have been able to make a slight progress. The permanent funds have been increased, and the salaries of the Professors have been promptly paid. Among donations to the Library, it deserves to be noted, that the handsome gift of 464 volumes has been made by the Rev. Dr. C. C. Beatty.

3. The Seminary at Danville. The number of students has been greatly diminished by the fact of civil war in the vicinity of the Institution. The number in attendance was reduced to eleven. The instructions of the Seminary, however, were not interrupted for a day. Six students have completed the regular course of study. There is a vacancy in the corps of Professors, Dr. Smith having finally declined the chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government. As there are funds enough to support all the Professors, there is no reason why this vacancy should be left unfilled. The Directors leave the matter entirely to the discretion of the Assembly. This suggestion derives additional force from the infirm health of some of the Professors.

The funds have been rising in value since the last report, although the income continues still to be seriously affected by the failure of dividends; and a serious falling off is apprehended during the coming year. A fire-proof Library building, a Lecture room, and rooms for the accommodation of twenty or thirty students, have been completed, and will be ready for use in September.

4. The Seminary of the Northwest, at Chicago. The number of students has been eleven, of whom three have completed the full course of study. The proficiency of the various classes is described as commendable.

There are two chairs vacant in the Theological Faculty, in consequence of the decline of Dr. Krebs as Dr. Rice's successor, and the lamented decease of Dr. Scott. Professors Lord and Halsey have supplied the deficiency by extra labours, and the Rev. J. D. Pering has been employed as teacher of Hebrew. Such is the embarrassed condition of the finances, we are sorry to have to add, that the salaries of the present Professors themselves are reduced, notwithstanding increased duties; and the Directors do not deem it expedient to ask the Assembly to fill these vacancies for the present year. The Committee feel impelled to add, that the affairs of this Seminary are in a delicate and critical situation, and that probably the Directors are the persons best qualified to manage them successfully, as being intimately acquainted with all the circumstances.

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, we have the painful duty of recording the death of Professor Scott, of the Seminary of the Northwest, and among the directors of the Western Seminary, of Drs. Allan D. Campbell and Henry G. Comingo, and among the Trustees of Princeton Seminary, James Neilson, Esq. Dr. Campbell was also a Trustee as well as Director of the Western Seminary.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Annual Report be printed in the Appendix as usual.

2. Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the tokens of favour with which Divine Providence has been pleased to regard the various Seminaries of the Church; and particularly that we thankfully record the prosperity and success which the oldest of our Seminaries has enjoyed during the first half-century of its existence just closed; a like career of prosperity we ardently desire for all our Seminaries.

3. Resolved, That this Assembly express their grateful acknowledgment of the munificent donation of $50,000, by Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, of New York, to the funds of Princeton Seminary; to Dr. Beatty for his donation of books to the Western Seminary; and also to other donors.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly deeply deplore the loss which the Church has sustained in the decease of those steadfast friends of the Seminaries, and useful servants of Christ—Professor Scott, Dr. Campbell, Dr. Comingo, and Colonel James Neilson.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly proceed to choose a Professor to fill the vacant chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government in the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky.

6. Resolved, That in accordance with the wishes of the Directors of the Seminary of the Northwest, at Chicago, no steps be taken at present to fill the vacancies in that institution.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Assembly now proceed to receive nominations for the vacant Professorship of Pastoral Theology and Church Government in Danville Seminary.

On further motion, this resolution was laid over, and ordered to be placed on the docket.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was again taken up, and finally adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed upon the Twenty-fifth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, after a careful examination of its contents, would present the following resolutions for the consideration of the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly, having learned, from the Board's Report, of the undiminished contributions of the churches, notwithstanding the pecuniary embarrassments of the times; and of the blessing of God upon the labours of our missionaries in the foreign field, in the conversion of souls, and in the enlargement and strengthening of our mission stations; so that the work of this Board, in all its departments, is as encouraging as in any former period of its history; we do hereby record our devout gratitude to the great King and Head of the Church, for the merciful favour by which, in this time of general rebuke, he has evinced his approbation of our efforts to "preach the gospel to every creature."

Resolved, 2. That we regard the proffer and acceptance of the services of thirteen young men, whom God has raised up in his providence, and influenced by his grace, to undertake the work of missions at this trying crisis, as a significant fact, calling upon us, in the exercise of a more liberal benevolence and a higher faith, to send forth these new labourers, in the confidence that his past mercies are but the earnest of larger favours, as the reward of increased exertions for the glory of his name.

Resolved, 3. That in view of the greatly increased pecuniary liabilities of the Board, involved in this new accession of labourers, we call upon all the members of our churches to carry this responsibility upon their hearts; upon all our pastors to present this call of Divine Providence distinctly and pungently to the people; upon all our sessions to carry out such an efficient system of contribution as shall leave no tythe ungathered; and upon all our congregations to make united and continuous supplication to the great Lord of the harvest, that he will so bless the work and the workers, that we shall have reason to say, as each year of increased effort terminates, "We have trusted in the Lord, and are not made ashamed."

Resolved, 4. That in view of the present state of the world, and the encouragements by which Divine Providence is beckoning us onward in the prosecution of this great work, we express to the churches our increased sense of the importance of the claims of this Board upon their Christian liberality; as its field is the world, and its operations involve such multiform pecuniary expenditures, requiring, in addition to the outfit and salaries of the missionaries, large outlays for the support of schools, the building of houses, and the publication of the Bible, and other books and tracts in a variety of foreign languages.

Resolved, 5. That we heartily approve of the effort of the Board to circulate the "Foreign Missionary" among the Sabbath-schools and families of our Church; and that, under the strong conviction of the importance of training all our children and youth to feel a deep interest in the missionary work, we earnestly commend this subject to the attention of pastors, and parents, and Sabbath-school teachers, in the hope that they will make the inculcation of a true missionary spirit one of the principal features of their plans for Christian instruction and nurture.

Resolved, 6. That this Assembly takes great pleasure in commending the wisdom and fidelity with which the affairs of the Board have been conducted, and our appreciation of the cheerfulness with which its executive officers have performed the increased labours of the present year.

Resolved, 7. That the Report of the Board be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee for publication.

The Rev. John C. Rankin was nominated to the Board of Foreign Missions in addition to the nominations made by the Standing Committee on that Board.

Overture No. 2, respecting the publication of a German Hymn Book, was then taken up, when Dr. Piper offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to act in conjunction with the Board of Publication in preparing, as soon as practicable, a German Hymn Book, suitable in size and price for the case in question.

Pending the discussion of this resolution, the Assembly proceeded to spend half an hour in devotional exercises. It then adjourned, after prayer by Mr. D. Comfort.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 23.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

On motion of Dr. George Marshall, Mr. Joseph M. Wilson was invited to address the Assembly in regard to the Presbyterian Historical Almanac published by him. Mr. Charles Crosby offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, The Presbyterian Historical Almanac is a volume containing the annual operations of every branch of the Presbyterian Church throughout the world, with biographies of deceased Presbyterian ministers, and historical sketches of Presbyterian churches, and as a wide dissemination of such information will produce a beneficial influence in the Church; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbyterian Historical Almanac, prepared and published by Joseph M. Wilson, of Philadelphia, be earnestly recommended to the members of the churches under our care.

Resolved, That the Colporteurs of the Board of Publication be allowed the privilege of supplying said Almanac to such as may order it.

The Rev. George P. Van Wyck offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

Whereas, It is highly desirable that a fraternal spirit should be developed as far as practicable among the various branches of the Christian Church, and especially those of the Presbyterian family. And whereas, no interchange of delegates has occurred between this body and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church called New-school, and the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly deem it wise to appoint annually Corresponding Delegates to the ecclesiastical bodies mentioned above.

Overture No. 2, relating to the publication of a German Hymn Book, was taken up as unfinished business.

Mr. J. B. Mitchell moved to postpone the resolution of Dr. Piper, offered yesterday, in order to take up the following:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to prepare a small Hymn Book in the German language, and report the same to the next Assembly.

The order of the day was postponed in order to dispose of this business.

It was moved and carried, that the Rev. Dr. Schenck, Secretary of the Board of Publication, be requested to give the Assembly any information or views he may have to present in relation to this matter. Which was done.

The motion of Mr. Mitchell to postpone was lost.

Dr. Piper's resolution was also lost.

Dr. Sloan moved to amend the recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, by inserting the word "direct" instead of "recommend," and the words "as soon as practicable," instead of "if practicable."

The motion was carried, and the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, as thus amended, was adopted, as follows:

It is recommended that this General Assembly direct the Board of Publication, with such assistance as may be needed, to provide, as soon as practicable, a German Hymn-book for the German churches in our connection.

The order of the day was then taken up, being the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension.

The report was presented by Rev. R. Conover, its chairman; and Rev. H. I. Coe, the Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly.

The report was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Church Extension submit the following report:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approve of the careful manner in which the records of the Board have been kept by the Secretary.

Resolved, 2. That the Report be approved and published, together with the Rules of the Board, and instructions to churches needing aid.

Resolved, 3. That while the severe trials of the country have greatly retarded the work of church building, yet the Church has great reason for thanks to God, that in the midst of these trials, fifty-five churches have been aided by the Board during the year, in completing their sanctuaries.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly highly approve of the economy exhibited by the Board in the management of the funds entrusted to their care.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly approve of the suspension of the work on the "Children's Church" for the present.

Resolved, 6. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to alter all blank reports for statistics in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly, so as to transfer the item of "Contingent and Commissioners' Fund" from the column of "Church Extension" to that of "Congregational."

Resolved, 7. That all our ministers and sessions of vacant churches be earnestly requested to present this cause to their respective churches, for their contributions annually, and as far as practicable, on the first Sabbath of July, the day designated by the Assembly of 1861.

Resolved, 8. That all churches needing aid for building houses of worship, and all churches and individuals contributing funds for this purpose, are hereby earnestly requested to make this Board the agency of their favours and benefactions.

Judge Leavitt, from the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in regard to the Fund for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Children of Deceased Ministers, presented a report.

Pending the consideration of which, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. A. A. Mathes.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. V. L. Lockwood.

Rev. Dr. Tustin, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, presented a report, which, on motion of Dr. Macdonald, was made the order of the day for to-morrow at ten o'clock, A. M.

Dr. J. W. Scott moved a reconsideration of the vote adopting the report on the Board of Education, with a view to its recommitment to the Standing Committee.

The vote was reconsidered, and the report recommitted, for the purpose of correcting an error.

The order of the day was then taken up, being the paper of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge on the State of the Country.

The paper was again read—when Mr. Archibald Gamble moved to postpone, with a view to take up the following:

Resolved, That in view of past deliverances of the highest tribunal of the Church, on the subject involved in the paper just read, it is deemed by this General Assembly—with the highest respect for the venerable minister from whom the paper comes, and a deep sense of the great value of the services he has rendered to the Church and the country—inexpedient to take any further action on this subject at present.

Pending the discussion on this resolution, the Assembly passed half an hour in devotional exercises, and afterwards adjourned, with prayer by Dr. Christian.

FRIDAY MORNING, May 23.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read, amended, and approved.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to ruling elders H. S. Banks and E. McVey.

The report was approved.

Dr. J. W. Scott, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, reported back their former report with corrections. The whole report, as corrected, was adopted, as follows:

The Committee, to which was referred the Report of the Board of Education, having examined said report, together with the minutes and accounts of the Board, submits the following statement and resolutions:

1. That the Board has been enabled to pay all the appropriations due to its beneficiaries during the year, though not without delay in some instances, nor without incurring debt.

2. That both the delay and the indebtedness incurred, arose from the failure of the churches generally to carry out efficiently the plans of Systematic Beneficence recommended by previous General Assemblies. Many of the churches contributed less than usual, and very many nothing to the Board of Education, during the year just closed. Hence the Board was under the necessity of ending the fiscal year with a debt of something over $4000. A supplementary statement, however, shows that this debt has recently been reduced to something less than $1000.

3. That a surprising fact is brought to light in the Board's report, viz., That instead of too great an increase, as apprehended by some, there has been an actual decrease of the ministry as compared with the membership of our Church, of at least five per centum within the last ten years.

4. That the Board of Education, in accordance with the direction of the last General Assembly, have furnished a sufficient number of copies for the use of this Assembly, of "A Proposed Draft of a Constitution for the General Assembly's Board of Education."

In view of these and other facts brought to light in the report of this Board, the following resolutions are submitted:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approve of the management of the important interests entrusted to the Board of Education, as evincing a highly commendable degree of efficiency, wisdom, and economy, under the trying exigencies of the year just closed, and that the report be printed and circulated under their direction.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly has reason for thanksgiving to God, for the measure of blessing bestowed upon the work of the Board in all that portion of the Church to which it has had access during the past year.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly deeply deplore the failure of so many of our churches to contribute anything to this Board during the year; and do earnestly repeat the injunction of the previous General Assemblies upon all their churches to contribute to this, and also to the other Boards of the Church, at least once a year.

Resolved, 4. That the Presbyteries be renewedly and most solemnly enjoined to exercise increased care and caution in recommending candidates for the ministry to the care of the Board; and also to seek out such within their respective bounds as may be really worthy and may stand in need of aid while preparing for the ministerial work.

Resolved, 5. That in the judgment of this Assembly, though the retrenchment of all unnecessary expenses is urgently required, it is inexpedient to reduce the amounts of the annual appropriations to individual beneficiaries. The Assembly is of opinion, however, that much wholesome retrenchment might be effected by a more rigid application, on the part of Presbyteries, instructors in Academies, Colleges, and Theological Seminaries, of the excellent Rules of the Board respecting the qualifications of candidates. In some respects, such as farther advancement in scholarship, a longer probation as to personal piety, and a higher grade of intellectual endowment, still more might properly and advantageously be required for admission by the Board. It is believed, however, that in the practical application of the Rules of the Board, though the Board itself, so far as known to your Committee, is careful, faithful, and resolute in the discharge of duty, there is, on the part of the Presbyteries, much laxness—much want of that scrupulous attention and faithful firmness which the nature of this important interest so imperatively demands; and all Presbyteries are hereby solemnly enjoined to give diligent attention to the discharge of their whole duty in this matter. Such a discharge of duty, it is also believed, would lead to the withdrawing of quite a number of candidates heretofore recommended by the Presbyteries to the care of the Board, and now receiving aid from the funds of the Church, in some cases to the scandal of religion, and in many cases to the great prejudice of the education cause.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly rejoice in the measure of success afforded to the Schools, Academies, and Colleges, connected with our Sessions, Presbyteries, and Synods; and do again urge the solemn duty of securing the religious education of the children of the Church, by establishing and adequately supporting suitable Church Institutions within their respective bounds, as far as practicable.

Resolved, 7. That the last Thursday of February next be observed throughout our bounds as a day of earnest prayer for children and youth, especially the baptized children and youth of the Church, and those collected in schools and colleges; with particular reference to an increased supply of labourers in the vineyard of the Lord; and that a collection be taken up on that day for the College Fund.

Resolved, 8. That the proposed Draft of a Constitution, presented by the Board of Education to this General Assembly, be committed to a Committee of three, to examine and report the same, with such modifications or suggestions as to them may seem proper, to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 9. That the Board of Education is hereby directed to meet for the transaction of such business as may claim their attention, on Friday, the 23d inst., at 5½ o'clock, P. M., in this Hall.

On motion of Dr. J. C. Lowrie, the report on Overture No. 20, referring to the transfer of the Belgian mission in Wisconsin, was reconsidered and placed on the docket.

Rev. S. S. Sheddan, from the Committee on Systematic Benevolence, reported, and on motion of Dr. Musgrave, the report was placed upon the docket.

Judge Leavitt, from the special Committee to which was referred the papers of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge and Rev. S. Robinson, reported. The report was accepted.

Rev. M. W. Staples, from the same Committee, presented a minority report, signed by himself and Dr. J. M. Macdonald. The report was accepted.

It was moved, that the majority report be postponed in order to take up the minority report.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, being the motion to adopt the report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Dr. J. Hoge moved that the report be referred back to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, with instructions to report proposals to enter into correspondence with the bodies named. The motion was carried.

On motion of Dr. C. Dickson, Drs. Breckinridge, Musgrave, and Hoge, were added to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

On motion, several reports and overtures referred to this Assembly from that of last year, were committed to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. D. Irving presented the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the churches under the care of this General Assembly be requested to observe the week from the 4th to the 10th of January inclusive, as a season of special prayer for the prosperity of the work of Christian Missions throughout the world.

On motion, the unfinished business of yesterday afternoon was taken up, being the motion of Mr. Gamble to postpone the motion to adopt Dr. Breckinridge's paper on the state of the country, with a view to take up his substitute.

Pending the discussion of this motion the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. J. E. Marquis.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. George P. Van Wyck.

Mr. Charles Crosby, from the Committee on Mileage, presented a report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

Mr. Charles Crosby, from the Committee on Mileage, reported that there has been paid to the Treasurer, on account of the Commissioners' Fund, the sum of $327.58; that there has been 8143 miles travelled by the Commissioners who claim mileage in coming to the present Assembly, which, at four cents per mile, will make the sum of $325.72, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer this day, of one dollar and eighty-six cents. The Committee recommend that the Trustees be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer for said amount of $325.72, and that he pay it in sums as herein specified, provided that no Commissioner gets more than his expenses in coming to and going from this General Assembly.

On motion of Rev. H. I. Coe,

Overture No. 1, relating to a German periodical, was taken from the docket, and adopted.

On motion of Rev. A. A. Hogue, the subject of nominating a Professor to fill the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in Danville Seminary, was taken up, and it was made the order of the day for Monday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect said Professor.

At the request of the Moderator, the Assembly was led in prayer by Dr. James Hoge.

Nominations were called for, and the following were made, viz., Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., Rev. G. W. Musgrave, D. D., Rev. Robert Davidson, D. D., Rev. John V. Reynolds, D. D., Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D. D., Rev. Charles P. Jennings, and Rev. E. D. McMasters, D. D.

Drs. Musgrave, McMasters, Thomas, and Reynolds, asked and received leave to withdraw their names from nomination.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, the elections to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries. Additional nominations were made.

The Moderator announced as tellers in this election, Messrs. M. Williamson, E. L. Belden, R. J. Matthews, S. G. Miller, R. W. Smiley, and J. W. Kinnicutt. The votes were then cast.

On motion of Rev. George Hale, it was Resolved, That hereafter there be a Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly on the Fund for Disabled Ministers, and the Widows and Children of Deceased Ministers, to be appointed by the Moderator in connection with the other Standing Committees.

The second order of the day, the receiving of Reports on Synodical Records, was postponed in order to take up the unfinished business of the forenoon.

Mr. Breed moved to lay Judge Gamble's motion on the table, and the motion was carried.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning again to take up this subject.

The Assembly spent half an hour in devotional exercises, and adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. McDougall.

SATURDAY MORNING, May 24.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that Rev. William E. Boardman, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Stockton, had appeared and been enrolled.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had given leave to Rev. R. B. Abbott, and elders John Mackoy, J. W. Adams, W. C. Morris, J. E. Peabody. The report was approved.

Rev. Dr. Backus, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 22. A report from the Committee on Periodicals, appointed by the last Assembly, stating that no action had been taken on the subject, in consequence of the disturbed state of the country.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend that this Committee on Periodicals be continued, to report to the next Assembly.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 23. A report from a committee appointed two years ago to devise some method for properly preserving the records and papers of the Assembly, as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1860, "to devise some method for properly preserving the records and papers of the Assembly, and to report what papers, if any, may be placed in the care of the Historical Society," report, that in consequence of the absence of the Stated Clerk from the country, one year, and retirement from his place in Philadelphia the other year, since this appointment was made, there has been no deliberation of the Committee, excepting a slight conference during the sessions of this Assembly.

They are agreed, however, to report, that the records and papers of the Assembly can be kept, for the present, in the safe and vaults of the Board of Publication; and that, in their judgment, the Clerks may be left to their discretion, ordinarily, in giving papers to the Historical Society, provided that it be expressly understood, and ordered by this Assembly, that no paper shall pass from the custody of the Stated Clerk, which properly belongs to the record, either as an integral part or as a necessary voucher thereof, or which has been referred to another Assembly, or intended for communication to any other body, with which the General Assembly is in correspondence.

On motion, the report was placed upon the docket.

Also, Overture No. 24. A communication from the Rev. James Latta and others, in relation to the hasty and irregular dissolution of the pastoral relation.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the 17th article of our Form of Government, in spirit and letter, should be rigidly regarded by all pastors and churches, and enforced by our Presbyteries.

The report was accepted and adopted.

Also, Overture No. 26. A communication from the Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1860, to consider the subject of a Church Commentary.

The report was placed upon the docket.

Also, Overture No. 25, on the erection of a new Synod, to be composed of parts of the Synods of Philadelphia and New Jersey.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend, that as no new information has come before them, the matter be still further postponed.

The report was accepted and adopted.

The tellers appointed to count the votes at the elections for Boards and Seminaries, yesterday afternoon, offered a report.

On motion, the matter was recommitted, and the tellers were directed to retire and prepare a further report.

It was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon, to hear reports of Committees on Synodical Records.

The unfinished business of yesterday afternoon was taken up.

It was moved by Dr. L. H. Christian, that the debate on this subject be finished at half-past eleven o'clock this morning, and that each member, in speaking, be restricted to fifteen minutes.

Amendments were offered, naming eleven o'clock, A. M., on Monday, and four, P. M., to-day, as the time for concluding the debate.

Four o'clock in the afternoon was adopted as the time, and the original motion as thus amended was adopted.

On motion of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, the member now having the floor was exempted from the limitation to fifteen minutes.

The Moderator announced the following as a Committee to Revise the Rules of the Board of Education, viz.—Rev. Charles Hodge, D. D., Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., and Rev. C. Dickson, D. D.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. J. M. Macdonald.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. S. Sheddan.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Dickson, it was Resolved, That the necessary expenses of the Committee on Revision of the Book of Discipline, incurred by travelling to and from the place of meeting, in August of last year, and on the 14th inst., in this city (Columbus,) be paid from the treasury of the Board of Publication; and that the same order be made for any meeting of this Committee, regularly called, before or at the time of the next General Assembly; provided the expense be incurred by the members in attending on this duty alone, and not attending at the same time and place as commissioners or officers of the General Assembly.

On motion of Dr. R. Davidson, Rev. R. S. Cook, Secretary of the New York Sabbath Committee, was invited to address the Assembly, which he did.

Mr. Cook presented to the members of the Assembly a volume published by the Committee which he represented; when, on motion, the thanks of the body were voted therefor.

The unfinished business of the forenoon was taken up, and continued until four o'clock in the afternoon, the hour fixed for taking the vote, had arrived.

Dr. R. J. Breckinridge moved to substitute the word "the" for "all," in a sentence near the close of the first section of his paper, making it read thus: "And it is the bounden duty of the people who compose this great nation."

The motion was carried.

Dr. J. M. Macdonald moved to amend Dr. Breckinridge's paper by omitting the two following portions thereof:

1st. The words, "Disturbers of the Church ought not to be allowed; especially disturbers of the Church in States that never revolted, or that have been cleared of armed rebels: disturbers who, under many false pretexts, may promote discontent, disloyalty, and general alienation, tending to the unsettling of ministers, to local schisms, and to manifold trouble."

And 2dly. The words, "There is hardly anything more inexcusable connected with the frightful conspiracy against which we testify, than the conduct of those office bearers and members of the Church who, although citizens of loyal States, and subject to the control of loyal Presbyteries and Synods, have been faithless to all authority, human and divine, to which they owed subjection."

A division of the motion was called for. The Assembly voted separately on the two passages, and refused to strike out either.

Dr. Backus moved to amend Dr. R. J. Breckinridge's paper by striking out a part thereof, and adding to the remainder a quotation from the Confession of Faith, Chapter XXIII. Sec. 1, 3, and 4.

Dr. Breckinridge moved to lay this amendment on the table.

Dr. Junkin moved the previous question, and the motion was duly seconded.

The yeas and nays were ordered, and the paper of Dr. Breckinridge was adopted by the following vote:

The paper is as follows:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, now in session at Columbus, in the State of Ohio:

Considering the unhappy condition of the country in the midst of a bloody civil war, and of the Church agitated everywhere, divided in sentiment in many places, and openly assailed by schism in a large section of it; considering, also, the duty which this chief tribunal, met in the name and by the authority of the glorified Saviour of sinners, who is also the Sovereign Ruler of all things, owes to him, our Head and Lord, and to his flock committed to our charge, and to the people whom we are commissioned to evangelize, and to the civil authorities who exist by his appointment; do hereby, in this deliverance, give utterance to our solemn convictions and our deliberate judgment, touching the matters herein set forth, that they may serve for the guidance of all over whom the Lord Christ has given us any office of instruction, or any power of government.

I. Peace is amongst the very highest temporal blessings of the Church, as well as of all mankind; and public order is one of the first necessities of the spiritual as well as the civil commonwealth. Peace has been wickedly superseded by war, in its worst form, throughout the whole land; and public order has been wickedly superseded by rebellion, anarchy, and violence, in the whole Southern portion of the Union. All this has been brought to pass in a disloyal and traitorous attempt to overthrow the National Government by military force, and to divide the nation contrary to the wishes of the immense majority of the people of the nation, and without satisfactory evidence that the majority of the people in whom the local sovereignty resided, even in the States which revolted, ever authorized any such proceeding, or ever approved the fraud and violence by which this horrible treason has achieved whatever success it has had. This whole treason, rebellion, anarchy, fraud, and violence, is utterly contrary to the dictates of natural religion and morality, and is plainly condemned by the revealed will of God. It is the clear and solemn duty of the National Government to preserve, at whatever cost, the national Union and Constitution, to maintain the laws in their supremacy, to crush force by force, and to restore the reign of public order and peace to the entire nation, by whatever lawful means that are necessary thereunto. And it is the bounden duty of the people who compose this great nation, each one in his several place and degree, to uphold the Federal Government, and every State Government, and all persons in authority, whether civil or military, in all their lawful and proper acts, unto the end herein before set forth.

II. The Church of Christ has no authority from him to make rebellion, or to counsel treason, or to favour anarchy in any case whatever. On the contrary, every follower of Christ has the personal liberty bestowed on him by Christ, to submit, for the sake of Christ, according to his own conscientious sense of duty, to whatever government, however bad, under which his lot may be cast. But while patient suffering for Christ's sake can never be sinful, treason, rebellion, and anarchy may be sinful—most generally, perhaps, are sinful; and, probably, are always and necessarily sinful, in all free countries, where the power to change the government by voting, in the place of force, which exists as a common right, constitutionally secured to the people, who are sovereign. If, in any case, treason, rebellion, and anarchy can possibly be sinful, they are so in the case now desolating large portions of this nation, and laying waste great numbers of Christian congregations, and fatally obstructing every good word and work in those regions. To the Christian people scattered throughout those unfortunate regions, and who have been left of God to have any hand in bringing on these terrible calamities, we earnestly address words of exhortation and rebuke, as unto brethren who have sinned exceedingly, and whom God calls to repentance, by fearful judgments. To those in like circumstances who are not chargeable with the sins which have brought such calamities upon the land, but who have chosen, in the exercise of their Christian liberty, to stand in their lot and suffer, we address words of affectionate sympathy, praying God to bring them off conquerors. To those in like circumstances, who have taken their lives in their hands, and risked all for their country and for conscience' sake, we say, we love such with all our heart, and bless God such witnesses were found in the time of thick darkness. We fear, and we record it with great grief, that the Church of God, and the Christian people, to a great extent, and throughout all the revolted States, have done many things that ought not to have been done, and have left undone much that ought to have been done, in this time of trial, rebuke, and blasphemy; but concerning the wide schism which is reported to have occurred in many Southern Synods, this Assembly will take no action at this time. It declares, however, its fixed purpose, under all possible circumstances, to labour for the extension and the permanent maintenance of the Church under its care, in every part of the United States. Schism, so far as it may exist, we hope to see healed. If that cannot be, it will be disregarded.

III. We record our gratitude to God for the prevailing unity of sentiment and general internal peace, which have characterized the Church in the States that have not revolted, embracing a great majority of the ministers, congregations, and people under our care. It may still be called, with emphasis, a loyal, orthodox, and pious Church; and all its acts and works indicate its right to a title so noble. Let it strive for divine grace to maintain that good report. In some respects, the interests of the Church of God are very different from those of all civil institutions. Whatever may befall this, or any other nation, the Church of Christ must abide on earth, triumphant even over the gates of hell. It is, therefore, of supreme importance that the Church should guard itself from internal alienations and divisions, founded upon questions and interests that are external as to her, and which ought not by their necessary workings to cause her fate to depend on the fate of things less important and less enduring than herself. Disturbers of the Church ought not to be allowed: especially disturbers of the Church in States that never revolted, or that have been cleared of armed rebels: disturbers who, under many false prettexts, may promote discontent, disloyalty, and general alienation, tending to the unsettling of ministers, to local schisms, and to manifold trouble. Let a spirit of quietness, of mutual forbearance, and of ready obedience to authority, both civil and ecclesiastical, illustrate the loyalty, the orthodoxy, and the piety of the Church. It is more especially to ministers of the gospel, and amongst them, particularly to any whose first impressions had been, on any account, favourable to the terrible military revolution which has been attempted, and which God's providence has hitherto so singularly rebuked; that these decisive considerations ought to be addressed. And in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus we earnestly exhort all who love God or fear his wrath, to turn a deaf ear to all counsels and suggestions that tend towards a reaction favourable to disloyalty, schism, or disturbance either in the Church or in the country. There is hardly anything more inexcusable connected with the frightful conspiracy against which we testify, than the conduct of those office-bearers and members of the Church who, although citizens of loyal States, and subject to the control of loyal Presbyteries and Synods, have been faithless to all authority, human and divine, to which they owed subjection. Nor should any to whom this Deliverance may come fail to bear in mind that it is not only their outward conduct concerning which they ought to take heed; but it is also, and especially their heart, their temper, and their motives, in the sight of God, and towards the free and beneficent civil government which he has blessed us withal, and toward the spiritual commonwealth to which they are subject in the Lord. In all these respects, we must all give account to God in the great day. And it is in view of our own dread responsibility to the Judge of quick and dead that we now make this Deliverance.

Rev. Dr. Backus, for himself and others, gave notice of a dissent from the action of the Assembly in this case.

Dr. Stuart Robinson gave notice, for himself and others, of a protest against the action of the Assembly in this case.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Musgrave.

MONDAY MORNING, May 26.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of Saturday were read, corrected, and approved.

On motion of Mr. Joseph Anderson, any members who did not vote on Saturday, on Dr. Breckinridge's paper on the state of the Church, were permitted to record their votes to-day.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to Dr. William Chester, and Elder J. Van Keuren. Approved.

Rev. W. P. Breed, from the Committee on the Narrative, reported the Narrative of the State of Religion, the reading of which was ordered to be made a part of the devotional exercises for the afternoon.

Ruling Elder M. C. Grier had leave to record his vote in the affirmative on the paper of Dr. Breckinridge, adopted on Saturday afternoon.

On motion, the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Assembly respecting the Disabled Ministers' Fund, was taken up.

The following resolutions, forming part of that report, were read, amended, and adopted, as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Trustees appointed in relation to Disabled Ministers, and the Destitute Widows and Children of Deceased Ministers, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the able and interesting report of the Trustees charged with the supervision of this subject, presented to the present General Assembly, is earnestly commended to the attention of the pastors and people of our churches.

2. Resolved, That while the Assembly rejoice in the progress and increasing success, during the past year, of this noble enterprise, they learn with profound regret, that in a large proportion of the churches no contributions have been made in furtherance of its beneficent objects.

3. Resolved, That this Assembly earnestly recommends that annual collections be made in all the churches, and reported as required by the previous action of the Assembly.

4. Resolved, That the report presented to this Assembly by the Committee of the Trustees, and their Chairman and Secretary, be adopted and published in the Appendix to their Minutes, and that extra copies be printed by the Board of Publication for the use of the sessions of the churches; and that it be recommended to our pastors and stated supplies to read it to their congregations on or before the day when collections are to be made for this object.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly have learned, and highly appreciate, the praiseworthy and successful labours of the Chairman of the Committee and Secretary of the Fund, and cordially commending him to the sympathy and co-operation of the pastors and churches, express the earnest desire that he may continue thus to serve the Church in a field in which he has been so eminently useful, and thus far without any charge on the funds contributed by the churches.

The next resolution of the report being under discussion, amendments were offered by Judge Leavitt and Judge Linn, when

On motion of Dr. J. C. Lowrie, it was Resolved, That the remaining resolutions be laid on the table, and that this subject be referred to a committee of three ruling elders, to report on it to the next General Assembly.

At 10 o'clock, A. M., the Assembly took up the order of the day, being the election of a Professor of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in Danville Theological Seminary.

The name of Rev. Charles P. Jennings was, by leave of Assembly, withdrawn from nomination.

Rev. W. E. Jones and ruling elder S. E. Weir were appointed tellers, and the ballots were then cast.

On motion, Judge Linn was made Chairman of the Committee of three, under the resolution of Dr. Lowrie on the Fund for Disabled Ministers. Judge H. H. Leavitt and ruling elder C. F. Maurice were appointed the other members.

On motion, Dr. Joseph H. Jones was added to said Committee.

The tellers appointed to count the ballots for Professor in Danville Seminary reported, that 135 votes had been cast for Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., and 53 had been cast for Rev. R. Davidson, D. D.

Dr. Stanton was accordingly declared by the Moderator to be duly elected Professor of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in Danville Seminary.

Dr. Dumont offered a dissent for himself and others, in regard to the paper of Dr. Breckinridge on the State of the Church, adopted on Saturday.

Dr. Backus, for himself and others, presented a dissent in the same case.

Both these dissents were admitted to record.

The Assembly took up as unfinished business, the report of the Special Committee, to which had been referred the papers of Drs. R. J. Breckinridge and Stuart Robinson.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. James S. Kemper.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. George S. Woodward.

On motion, Rev. James Hoge, D. D., and Rev. R. A. Johnston, were appointed a committee to inform Dr. R. L. Stanton of his election as a Professor in Danville Seminary.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the hearing reports from Committees on Synodical Records.

The Records of the Synods of Albany, Buffalo, New York, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Wheeling, Ohio, Sandusky, Cincinnati, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, St. Paul, Iowa, and Southern Iowa, were approved without exceptions.

The Records of the Synods of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wisconsin, Upper Missouri, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Nashville, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Memphis, Arkansas, Texas, Pacific, and Northern India, were reported as not having been received by the respective Committees.

The Records of the Synod of New Jersey were approved as far as written, but, on motion of Dr. Musgrave, it was Resolved, That the Assembly expresses no opinion upon the action of the Synod in appointing a Committee to visit the Third Church of Newark, in order to ascertain if any member of its Session were unacceptable to the people.

The Records of the Synod of Missouri were approved, except a resolution on page 324, viz., "That the action of the General Assembly in May last, in relation to the political condition of the country was unscriptural, unconstitutional, unwise, and unjust; and we therefore solemnly protest against it, and declare it of no binding force whatever upon this Synod, or upon the members of the Presbyterian Church within our bounds."

The Records of the Synod of Kentucky were approved with the following exception:

That this General Assembly cannot approve the Synod's disapproval of the action of the Assembly of 1861, as recorded in the Synod's Minutes on pages 49 and 50.

The several Committees on Synodical Records were then discharged.

The following members had leave to record their votes affirmatively upon Rev. Dr. Breckinridge's paper on the State of the Church, adopted on Saturday afternoon, viz., Dr. L. R. McAbey, Rev. G. H. Robertson; ruling elders, R. Hinchman and James Miller.

The unfinished business of the forenoon was taken up, viz., the report of the Special Committee on the papers of Drs. Breckinridge and Robinson.

The motion to substitute the minority for the majority report was further discussed. The minority report was as follows:

The minority of the Special Committee, to whom was referred the papers touching the resignation of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, and the personal difficulties between himself, Rev. Stuart Robinson, D. D., and others, would recommend the Assembly to adopt the following minute, to wit:

1st. The Assembly sees no reason, arising from the personal controversy between the parties named in the papers, either to justify the resignation by Dr. Breckinridge of the Professorship in the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, or the acceptance of the same by this Assembly, and therefore recommend that he withdraw his resignation.

2d. That while it is incompetent for this Assembly to determine the differences between these parties, in the particular aspect in which it appears before us; yet we do most deeply deplore this unhappy controversy between brethren, who ought to live together in the unity of the Spirit, and do hereby exhort them, in the name of the Great Head of the Church, to study the things which make for peace; not intending hereby, however, to express any opinion as to the merits of the case.

The motion to substitute was lost.

It was, on motion,

Resolved, That the Assembly, instead of adjourning at 5½ P. M., will take a recess until 7¼ P. M., and sit until 9½ P. M.

The Assembly passed half an hour in devotional exercises, in the course of which the Rev. W. P. Breed, from the Committee on the Narrative, read the Narrative on the State of Religion, which was afterwards, on motion, accepted and adopted.

Assembly then took a recess until 7¼ P. M.

MONDAY EVENING, 7¼ o'clock.

Assembly met after recess, when the Moderator announced the Committee on the Board of Publication, as follows:

Ministers—Rev. S. B. McPheeters, D. D., Synod of Missouri; Rev. L. H. Atwater, D. D., Synod of New Jersey; Rev. J. M. Lowrie, D. D., Synod of Indiana; Rev. W. M. Paxton, D. D., Synod of Pittsburgh.

Ruling Elders—H. H. Leavitt, Synod of Cincinnati; James Donaldson, Synod of New York; Charles Crosby, Synod of Chicago; B. Whitely, Synod of Baltimore.

The Moderator, Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., being its Chairman, by the vote of the House.

On motion, the chairman was empowered to fill any vacancies in the Committee.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was taken up, viz., the majority report of the Special Committee to which had been referred the papers of Drs. Breckinridge and Robinson. The resolutions were taken up seriatim, and after having been amended, the whole paper was adopted, as follows:

The Committee to whom were referred the papers relating to the resignation of the Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, D. D., as a Professor in the Danville Theological Seminary, with a communication from the Rev. Stuart Robinson, D. D., in behalf of himself and the Rev. T. A. Hoyt, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That in so far as these papers involve the personal relations or controversies of the parties named, the Assembly can take no cognizance of them, unless in a judicial proceeding, prosecuted in the mode prescribed by the constitution of the Church; and as to these, the Assembly therefore express no opinion.

2. Resolved, That as the office of Professor in our Theological Seminaries is held under the authority and by the appointment of the General Assembly, it is competent for that body, at the request of any one holding that position, or on their own motion, to inquire into his acceptability and usefulness in that office.

3. Resolved, That in the judgment of the Assembly, no facts have come to their knowledge which impair their confidence in Dr. Breckinridge as a Professor in the Danville Seminary.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly do not concede, that in accepting a Professor's chair in the Seminary, Dr. Breckinridge did necessarily yield the right of expressing freely his views in relation to matters of great national concernment; and in their judgment his bold and patriotic stand in reference to the great conflict now in progress, entitle him to the gratitude of the Church and the country.

5. Resolved, That in view of the whole case, the Assembly declines to accept his resignation.

Judicial Case No. 4, was taken from the docket, and on motion of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, was referred to the next Assembly, with a request that that Assembly would make it the order of the day for the second afternoon of its sessions.

Dr. Junkin moved the following in reference to Colonization, which, after being amended, was adopted:

Resolved, That the American Colonization Society, and all others having in view the accomplishment of the same benevolent object, viz., the removal of free people of colour from this country, with their own consent, and their settlement as citizens of Liberia, in the land of their fathers' sepulchres, or elsewhere, be and they are hereby commended to the liberal support of our members throughout our churches.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the following proposals to enter into correspondence with the bodies named, and, on motion of Dr. Musgrave, they were unanimously adopted, as follows:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Columbus, in the State of Ohio, considering the recent organization of the United Presbyterian Church, whose General Assembly is now in session at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and desiring to express its sense of the relations which ought, in its judgment, to exist between the two bodies, hereby, of its own motion, proposes that there shall be a stated, annual, and friendly interchange of commissioners between the General Assemblies of the two Churches; each Assembly sending to the other, year by year, one minister and one ruling elder, as commissioners, who shall enjoy such privileges in the body to which they are sent as are common to all those now received by this body from other Christian denominations.

The Moderator of this Assembly will communicate this Deliverance to the Moderator of the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, to be laid before it with our Christian salutations.

In the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Columbus, Ohio, the matter of a fraternal correspondence by commissioners, with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (New-school,) in session at Cincinnati, Ohio, being duly considered, is decided as follows:

This Assembly having considered certain overtures sent to it by a few of the Presbyteries under its care, proposing that steps should be taken by it towards an organic union between this Church and the Church under the care of the Presbyterian General Assembly, (New-school;) and having determined against the course proposed in said overtures, has also been informed that the other General Assembly has, about the same time, come to a similar conclusion on similar overtures laid before it by a certain number of its own Presbyteries. Of its own motion, this General Assembly, considering the time to have come for it to take the initiative in securing a better understanding of the relations which it judges are proper to be maintained between the two General Assemblies, hereby proposes that there shall be a stated, annual, and friendly interchange of commissioners between the two General Assemblies; each body sending to the other one minister and one ruling elder, as commissioners, year by year; the said commissioners to enjoy such privileges, in each body to which they are sent, as are common to all those now received by this body from other Christian denominations.

The Moderator of this Assembly will communicate this Deliverance to the Moderator of the other Assembly, to be laid before it with our Christian salutations.

The report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence was taken up.

Dr. Musgrave moved that this report be referred to a special committee, to report to the next Assembly on the whole subject.

Pending the discussion of this motion, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Dr. James Hoge.

TUESDAY MORNING, May 27.

The Assembly met, and in the absence of the Moderator, Dr. Beatty, through indisposition, the Rev. George Junkin, D. D., the last Moderator present, on motion, took the chair and opened the session with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Dr. Dumont, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to Rev. Messrs. S. M. Campbell, Marshall, Staples, and Maclise; and to ruling elders Chute, Garth, Janvier, Patterson, James Brown, Curtis, Swan, Pugh, Collier, Raney, Belknap, Burchfield, Waring, and Hunting. The report was approved.

Dr. Junkin, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 27, having reference to several memorials from ministers and members of Presbyterian churches within the bounds of the Synod of Missouri, in which they call the attention of the General Assembly to a deliverance adopted by that Synod in November last, "in regard to the action of the last Assembly in certain resolutions, commonly known as Dr. Spring's resolutions." The memorialists pray this Assembly to take such action in regard to that deliverance of the Synod, "as will vindicate its own constitutional authority, and promote the order and well-being of the Church."

The Committee reported the following:

Resolved, That this General Assembly regrets to see the spirit which seems to be manifested in the resolution of the Synod of Missouri, believing it calculated to encourage insubordination to ecclesiastical authority, and to manifest a want of proper respect to the deliverances of this body.

Rev. W. P. Breed moved, that inasmuch as this deliverance of the Synod of Missouri had already been excepted to in the review of its records, this whole matter be laid upon the table. The motion was carried.

The unfinished business of last evening was taken up, being a motion to refer the report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence to a special Committee, to report to the next Assembly.

On motion of Rev. George Hale, the motion to commit to a special Committee, and several amendments thereon, were all laid upon the table.

The report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence was then adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence, in making their report, feel straitened because so little data has been furnished. From the one hundred Presbyteries represented on this floor, only twenty-three have given in reports, and some of these not showing the facts desired by the Assembly.

Should we make these reports the basis, and then aggregate the contributions to all the Boards, it will be found that about one-half obeyed the injunction. This ratio only holds in the aggregate. The Boards of Domestic and Foreign Missions have received the largest attention. In a few Presbyteries, every church responded to the call. In the reports before us, these Boards have received, in the average, from about two-thirds of the Church. Without pretending to fractional accuracy, it may be said that the Boards of Education and Publication have been remembered by about half of the churches reported; the Church Extension not rising above one-third; and of the churches who are enjoying a working ministry, not one-fourth have given to the ministry disabled by long service or over-tasked effort.

From the tone of the reports made by the Secretaries of the Boards to the Assembly, as well as from the statistics forwarded us, we feel there is some advance in systematic effort. It was at least gratifying that, in these times of business prostration, the Boards generally close the year with little or no indebtedness. The very stringency of the times has helped to systematize, and has called out some churches as a well-timed reserve, that, through remissness, had been held back. From the little the Presbyteries have told us, and from the reports of the Boards, and in view of the times, we are quickened in our belief, "as thy day is, so shall thy strength be."

Your Committee feel that our Boards are entering upon a year that will, more than the past, call upon the churches for system in effort and sacrifice, and will hear of no plea for delinquency. It is true that Systematic Benevolence is not a Board—has no secretary nor trustees—but holds the place of the nursing mother of all the Boards. Through impulsive benevolence they may live for a time, but for their continuance, their health and growth, there must be system.

Each individual church may place her own estimate upon the relative importance and claims of the Boards, but all should remember that they are so kindred, and their co-existence such a unity, that none can well be neglected. They are not all the eye, but they are parts of one body.

Your Committee, feeling that the Church is beginning to awake more to the analogy of works, as well as faith, would, in the name of the Assembly, urge upon her to complete this system of beneficence. The Boards, entering upon the year more by faith than by sight, appeal to the whole Church—Give us a place in your almsgiving. The Assembly has said to the Boards, Go forward—educate your young men, build your churches, help the weak, print your Bibles, books, and tracts, and scatter them, and with gentleness care for the disabled. And the Assembly would again press upon the Church sacredly to regard her own agencies for good. Have a chart embracing every Board of the Church, and give according to your ability. Adopt, if you can, the simultaneous effort recommended by the Assembly; if not, choose your own time and way, but let none fail of doing something for each Board. This is urged by the day in which we live, and not only so, but especially in trying times is it essential for her spiritual health that the Church keep active her outgoing sympathies. It is true that the low fountain may not give out as that which is full, but without motion it will sooner become impure. Would the Church, in trying times, be true to the demands from without, and true to her own spiritual purity, peace, and prosperity, she must have her charitable outgoings.

Pressed by the times, urged by the enlarged wants and efforts of the Boards, and exhorted by a care of her own spiritual health; therefore Resolved, 1. That the Assembly urge upon all the churches that, according to the General Assembly's plan of simultaneous effort, or by a plan adapted to their situation, they would every year give a place and a time to all the Boards.

Resolved, 2. That while the Assembly record gratitude to God, that he so enabled us to meet the more pressing wants of the last year, we feel that the providences of God bid us enlarge our efforts, and bring out more energy to speed these agencies of the Church.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly would solemnly throw it upon the Presbyteries, the pastors, the elders, and churches, to see to it that systematic benevolence be perfected, and that no church so dishonour herself and her religion, as to have no name or place in the beneficence that marks God's children, and which he has ordained as an instrumentality in building up his kingdom.

On motion of H. K. Clarke, 3000 copies of this report were ordered to be printed and circulated under direction of the Board of Publication.

Dr. Stuart Robinson read a protest, signed by himself and others, against the adoption of the paper of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge on the state of the Church.

This protest was, on motion, admitted to record without answer.

Another protest, signed by Rev. A. P. Forman and others, was likewise admitted to record without answer.

All the papers ordered to be recorded on this subject, are as follows:

Dissent of Dr. A. H. Dumont and others.

The undersigned request respectfully, that the following minute be entered on the records of this Assembly, viz.

1. That while they substantially assent to all the principles asserted in the paper of Dr. Breckinridge, presented to the Assembly, and by them adopted as their solemn deliverance, they yet dissent to the form and manner of its introduction and adoption.

2. They further dissent, for that no circumstances, as they believe, calling for such deliverance, at the present time, surround our Church, but rather that the present condition of some of the churches will be damaged by its utterance.

3. They further dissent, for that they solemnly and conscientiously believe, that, in this deliverance, the Assembly has contravened the xxxi. Article, 4th Section, of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, in its spirit and in its words.

A. H. DUMONT,
B. R. ALLEN.

Columbus, May 26, 1862.

Dissent of Dr. Backus and others.

The undersigned, ministers and ruling elders of this General Assembly, respectfully ask leave to have recorded their formal dissent from the action of this body on the State of the Church, on the general ground that they deem it inexpedient and unnecessary, in the circumstances of the Church and the country, and at the same time, of most hazardous tendency in respect to the churches in our connection, which are located in the Border States, to make this or any similar deliverance.

JOHN C. BACKUS,
CYRUS DICKSON,
WILLIAM B. CANFIELD,
D. COMFORT,
ARCHIBALD GAMBLE.

Protest of Dr. S. Robinson and others.

The undersigned, while fully concurring in the judgment that true allegiance, and lawful subjection and obedience to the civil government, as an ordinance of God, are among the highest duties of religion; and that these should be enjoined by the courts, and inculcated by the ministers of the Church of Christ; yet feel obliged to enter this, their solemn protest, against the action of the General Assembly, adopting as its own the paper offered by Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, purporting to be a deliverance on the state of the Church; and for the following reasons:

1. That in this paper—solemnly speaking in the name of Christ, and by the authority given to the Spiritual Courts—as it seems to us, sundry propositions concerning civil matters are handled and concluded, directly or indirectly, that are forbidden to the ecclesiastical courts in chap. xxxi. sec. 4, of the Confession of Faith: “Synods and councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical, and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs,” &c.

We understand this article of the creed to be not merely an advice of what is expedient, but a brief summing up of the fundamental truths of Presbyterianism, as set forth in great detail in the earlier symbols of the Church, and elaborately expounded by those who, in the midst of conflicts with the civil power, framed our Confession. Among these truths are the propositions that there are two distinct and complete governments divinely appointed for men—one, the civil government, from the Lord Christ as King of nations; and the other, the ecclesiastical government, from the Lord Christ, as King of saints. That these two jurisdictions, though, to some extent, over the same subjects, are ordained of Christ to be kept distinct; since “these jurisdictions confounded, which God hath sundered, tendeth to the wreck of all true religion.” That as the power of the sword, committed to the civil government, may not be used to do the spiritual work of the Church, so on the other hand the power of the keys, and the agencies and ordinances of the Church government may not be prostituted to the promotion of merely secular and political purposes.

These, and kindred truths, constituted the testimony of our fathers against the usurpations of the civil over the ecclesiastical power; but are not the less true as a testimony against the voluntary subjection of the Church to the civil power, or the usurpation of power by the Church, to direct or dictate to the civil government. Nor does the fact that the fathers in bondage, by reason of the alliance of Church and State, took action frequently in the Church courts inconsistent with their testimony, furnish any precedent to justify similar action in the American Church, under her glorious freedom from civil domination.

On these general considerations, we protest against certain assumptions, which seem to us to be necessarily implied in parts of this paper, of a right in the Assembly, to handle and conclude certain questions of fact in the civil and political history of the country; to pronounce upon the question of the duty of the National Government, in reference to its civil and military policy, and to declare "loyalty" to be in common with orthodoxy and piety, an attribute of the Church and its courts. In the judgment of the undersigned, this use of the authority of the spiritual government to determine these questions of political history is, contrary to Scripture, rendering to Caesar the things that are God's; and the assumption of authority to pronounce upon the duty of the National Government, is equally contrary to the Scripture that enjoins on the Church, not dictation to, but "subjection to the powers that be."

2. We protest against other parts of this deliverance, as, in our judgment, contrary to the spirit of our Constitution, which forbids the pronouncing of judgment without trial according to the forms of judicial proceeding. Though, of course, not so intended by the Assembly, yet the declarations of this paper concerning "disturbers of the Church," acting "under false pretexes," and "office-bearers and members in loyal Synods and Presbyteries, faithless to all obligations, human and divine," will be taken by the public as practically a judgment given against some one; and as not a single fact in the paper itself, or elicited in the elaborate discussion of it, is given to point out the application of this sentence, its application is left to be made according to the prejudices and passions of the public, to any Synod, Presbytery, or person—to their great injury.

3. We protest against this whole action, as not only unnecessary and uncalled for at this time, but as positively contrary to the clearest and highest Christian expediency. For as we believe it will operate injuriously, whether we contemplate its effects on the schism at the South, on the churches of the Border States, or on the churches of the Northern States. First. By the threat to "disregard the schism," contrary to our policy hitherto toward churches less near to us in doctrine and order, it must exasperate and widen, rather than heal the breach. Second. It must drive away from the influence of the Church in the Border States, if not many members, yet many hearers and supporters of the gospel, by reason of their fears of this assumption by the Assembly to determine civil questions. Third. It must, by example, add greatly to the troubles and corruptions from political preaching in the Northern churches, by adding to its power the weight and sanction of the Old-school Presbyterian Church, hitherto the great bulwark of conservatism.

STUART ROBINSON,
SAMUEL B. MCPHEETERS.

J. S. Vredenburg, of the Presbytery of Sangamon, joins with Dr. S. Robinson in protest against the action of the General Assembly in regard to the deliverance upon the state of the country.

Protest of Rev. A. P. Forman and others.

We, the undersigned, respectfully protest against the action of the General Assembly in adopting the paper of Dr. Breckinridge on the state of the Church and the country. We make this protest, not because we do not acknowledge loyalty to government to be a religious duty, nor because we deny the right of the Assembly to enjoin that, and all other like duties, upon those under its care. Indeed, the Church of God is bound to teach all that is contained in the Scriptures, whether of doctrine or of practice; and in view of the present condition of public affairs, the Assembly should certainly call attention to, and enjoin the observance of those precepts of God's word which set forth the nature of civil government, plainly teaching that it is of divine institution; which inculcate the moral qualifications of civil rulers, and the principles by which the Lord requires them to be controlled in their official conduct; which enjoin upon private citizens, as religious duties, respect and prayer for, and obedience and submission to, all who are in authority, and which forbid resistance as a sin against God. But we protest, because,

1. We deny the right of the Assembly, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Christ, to decide any questions, or to utter as truth any things not contained in the Bible. We are limited, as a Church Court, in our authoritative teachings by the Scriptures. Now, the paper adopted seems to assume that the primary allegiance of the citizen belongs to the National Government. Whatever we may believe about this as a political dogma, yet it is a question which cannot be settled by an appeal to the Scriptures, and must depend on an interpretation of a human instrument. So the statement of certain political facts depends on evidence neither in the Scriptures nor in documents in the possession of the Assembly. Furthermore, the counsel of this paper as to the duty of the Government to preserve, at whatever cost, the national Union, and to crush force by force, is counsel which we, as a Church Court, are not authorized, either by the Bible or by special inspiration, in the name and by the authority of Christ to give.

2. We regard the action of the Assembly as in clear violation of the constitution of the Church, which says, (Chap. xxxi. § iv.) "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical, and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary, or by way of advice for the satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate."

3. The idea seems to underlie the paper adopted, that the Church owes allegiance to the State, for it speaks of "loyal Presbyteries and Synods," "loyal Church," &c. The citizen owes allegiance to the State, and is bound to uphold and maintain the civil government; but the Church, as such, owes allegiance only to the Lord Jesus Christ; his kingdom is the only kingdom she is bound to uphold—hence she can be loyal only to her own King.

4. The spirit of the paper we deem to be too harsh, and by no means to accord with that spirit of love and tenderness to erring ones which everywhere pervades the gospel of Jesus. It ignores the fact that seems to be plain, that our whole country, in every part of it, has sinned fearfully against God, and that these present calamities are divine judgments for national sins. And it makes the charge that there are in some of our Presbyteries office-bearers who have been faithless to all authority, human and divine; and it makes this charge without specifying the persons or Presbyteries intended, and without furnishing any evidence that it is correct.

5. We regard the paper as eminently unwise in the present state of the country, tending only to deepen the gulf of schism which already exists, to distract the churches in the border slave States, and to open the door in our beloved Church for that kind of political preaching which has been productive of so much evil in our country.

A further report from the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline was received and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline report, recommending that the General Assembly direct this Committee to hold their next meeting in the First Presbyterian Church at Pittsburg, on the 22d day of July next. And further they suggest, that the name of the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., be substituted for that of Dr. Peck; and the name of R. R. Reed, a ruling elder of the church of Washington, Pennsylvania, for the name of T. C. Perrin.

On motion, it was ordered that such members of this Committee as may be present at the time above appointed, shall constitute a quorum thereof.

A resolution, some days ago offered by Dr. Junkin, was taken up as unfinished business, and was adopted, after being amended, as follows:

Resolved, That as soon as the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline shall have completed its work, the Stated Clerk be directed to have printed by the Board of Publication, and distributed with all practicable speed, three thousand copies of the new Book of Discipline, and transmit at least one copy to every minister in the Church, and to every vacant church, and that any surplus copies be sent to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 26, relating to a Church Commentary, was taken from the docket, and on motion was still further postponed.

Overture No. 23, relating to the safe keeping of the records and files of the Assembly, was taken from the docket. On motion of Mr. D. Comfort, the following substitute was adopted:

It being ascertained that facilities for the safe preservation of the records, and papers, and archives of every kind belonging to the General Assembly, can be had at Princeton, New Jersey, the residence of the present Stated Clerk, therefore

Resolved, That he be authorized to keep all the records and papers there; and that he be required to retain in his hands all papers not otherwise disposed of by order of the General Assembly.

Overture No. 20, relating to a transfer of the Belgian Mission in Wisconsin to the Foreign Board, was taken from the docket, and

On motion of Rev. George Hale, the following was adopted as a substitute for the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Inasmuch as the field covered by this Belgian Mission belongs properly to the Board of Domestic Missions,

Resolved, That this Assembly take no action on this subject.

On motion of Dr. Tustin, the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the gratitude of this Assembly is due, and is hereby tendered, to the citizens of Columbus, of various religious denominations, for their generous and cheerful hospitality to the members of the Assembly, during their short, but delightful sojourn in this city.

2. Resolved, That the grateful acknowledgments of the Assembly be, and they are, presented to the Legislature of the State of Ohio, for its kindness in placing at the service of this body the Library of the State, and the Hall of the House of Representatives for its use, which accommodations have contributed greatly to the convenience and comfort of our members.

3. Resolved, That as a token of their appreciation of the kindness extended to them, the General Assembly direct their Board of Publication to present, through the proper officers, a set of their publications, to be placed in the State Library.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly is grateful to the Superintendent of the State House, Dr. William M. Awt, and to the Committee of Arrangements, of which the Rev. Josiah D. Smith, D. D., is Chairman, for their unwearied and successful efforts to promote the comfort of the members of the Assembly.

5. Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the Moderator, for the dignity, impartiality, and ability with which he has presided over the harmonious and delightful sessions of this Assembly.

Rev. James Hoge, D. D., briefly responded to these resolutions on behalf of the citizens of Columbus.

The minutes were read and approved.

It was then, on motion,

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Peoria, and State of Illinois, on the third Thursday of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord, 1863.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

IN THE CHURCHES UNDER THE CARE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 15, 1862.

If the Eternal Son of God takes such interest in his Church, as to suffer no two or three of its members to meet in his name without his special presence, it well becomes us, in these annual Assemblies, to employ a portion of our time in inquiry after the general health and progress of this great Presbyterian branch of that Church during the by-gone year. And if, on collating the various Presbyterial narratives of a Church so numerous in its membership, and so wide in territorial extent, we should see the great field flecked with light and shade; the crops in one section more abundant, in another less, and here and there blighted by untimely frosts, this would be no more and no less than what has been true of the Church during every year of her history, from the time when the Apostle wrote to the Philippians, on one page commending their "fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;" and on another, lamenting that "many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ." And in the one case there is as little ground for despondency, as there is in the other for vain-glory. The good is all of sovereign grace, and the ill but an evanescent cloud, that if it cast a chill shadow here and there on the field, can offer no permanent resistance to the beams of the Sun of Righteousness, whose light and warmth will sooner or later cheer the whole earth.

Since, in our country, ministers and people are at once men and citizens; residents in the land, and shareholders and constituent powers in the government, it is impossible that the state of the nation should not tell with peculiar power upon both the external prosperity and the spiritual condition of the Church. Accordingly, of all the reports from the Presbyteries for the past year, scarcely one fails to make mention of the agony that has been upon the nation, since the Assembly last met; of churches called to send forth members, and households sons and fathers, to fill the ranks of war; of the mustering and marching of soldiers, and of the eager, all-engrossing interest of church and congregation, in the Government, navy, and army. Some of these reports loudly deplore the distracting and secularizing influence of these worldly affairs upon the mind and heart of the Church; the crippling of her pecuniary energies, in the general commercial prostration, and an increase of intemperance, profanity, and Sabbath-breaking in the world around, consequent upon the exigencies of military movements, and the precipitation of such masses of men into the trying scenes of the soldier's life. One Presbytery speaks of nothing else but lack of conversions, lack of advance in the divine life, broken vows, reduced or divided churches, and displaced ministers.

On the other hand, not a few express, with equal emphasis, the conviction that He who maketh the wrath of man to praise him, and constrains from evil itself a revenue of good, has kindled many a bright star on the dark sky, and painted many a bright rainbow on the bosom of the cloud. In our armies, five hundred thousand men, mustered under the Church's eye, have presented touching, and not unheeded claims for special outlay of Christian sympathy, prayer, and labour. And on many a march the songs of Zion have been sung, and in many a camp even revivals of religion have been enjoyed. And from those camps and hospitals where the sick and wounded lay, appeals have reached the kind-hearted, and have been responded to in such a breaking up of the fountains of true and almost boundless charities, as the world has rarely, if ever witnessed. And besides all that has been done for our own soldiers and sailors, thousands of prisoners of war have been constrained by an indiscriminating liberality to say: "I was in prison, and ye came unto me." And withal, the recognized multitude and magnitude of the interests at stake in the present national conflict, overshadowing the public mind with an unwonted solemnity, driving the devout, in the midst of contending hopes and fears, to the throne of grace, and constraining even secular men, in military and civil office, repeatedly to entreat of the Church her interceding interposition at the mercy-seat, have powerfully tended to deepen the general impression that Christian prayer is a power on the earth, and the Christian's God the actual Sovereign Disposer of events.

During the year, we have reason to believe that, with few exceptions, our whole ministry, of more than twenty seven hundred men, have been employed in preaching, stately or occasionally, the unsearchable riches of Christ. For another year, from so many earnest hearts, and faithful, prayerful lips, have the momentous truths of man's mortality and immortality, his guilt, accountability, and helplessness, and the precious truth of a proffered salvation through a vicarious atonement, been iterated and re-iterated, in the ears of hundreds of thousands, if not millions, in the splendid temple, in the log hut, in the school-house and court-house, in the open field, in tent, hospital, and prison. And "as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater, so shall this word be that goeth forth out of his mouth. It shall not return unto him void, but it shall accomplish that which he may please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto he sends it."

Besides this steady seed-sowing, there has been a regular administration of the sacraments in the great majority of our thirty-six hundred churches.

The little ones, we believe, have, with increasing interest and faithfulness, been brought to the house of God, and presented with their birthright claim to the benefits of that sprinkling with water, which so beautifully typifies the application of "the blood of sprinkling, which speaketh better things than that of Abel."

And as the seasons have rolled round, the communion tables have been spread, and around them have been gathered the more than three hundred thousand members of our Christian family, to commemorate a Saviour's dying love.

And, without daring to affirm that all in our churches has been as it should be; that our ministers have all preached and laboured with that self-forgetting zeal that becomes their office and their vows; that our people have been as careful, prayerful, laborious, benevolent, and holy as they ought; yet, as we believe in God, we may be well assured that the moral power of all this Christian life and activity within the Church, has been of incalculable magnitude, and of incalculable value.

There is another sphere of Christian activity that merits special attention. The mass of a population is composed of children, and in them each generation has the power of moulding its successor. And it would seem, from all indications, that more and more the "hearts of the fathers are turning to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers." Besides what is done in families, in instructing, and in praying with and for the lambs of the flock, new and increasing interest and success are reported in the sphere of Sabbath-school instruction. Presbytery after Presbytery reports encouraging advance in this department of labour. Nearly two hundred thousand children have, during the year, been stately grouped in Sabbath-schools, around nearly twenty thousand Sabbath-school teachers. And while the Church rejoices in all that is done among the pupils, she has no little reason for gratitude in the possession of an army of labourers like that band of Sabbath-school teachers. And, if the service they render is self-denying, it is also remunerative. For there can be little doubt that they who spend so much time on the Sabbath in simplifying gospel truth, and seeking a lodgment for it in the minds of the young, reap in their own souls larger spiritual benefit, and lay up larger stores of scriptural knowledge, than those who are able to spend their Sabbath hours in more quiet reading and meditation. They who water others, themselves are watered.

In our larger cities there is a branch of Sabbath-school labour which presents special claims for Christian sympathy, contributions, and co-operation. This is called the "Mission School" system. It is a purely aggressive movement. Bands of self-denying Christians penetrate those city recesses given over to the wretched and abandoned, and gathering in some schools several hundred of these children of penury and vice—candidates for a life of crime, for the prison and the gallows—teach them the truths of heaven, and the songs of Zion. Thus many a firebrand is quenched, many a tool of some future Cataline is transferred to the vineyard of virtue, and many an uncouth character transmuted into jewels for the diadem of our Lord.

It were well that our wise statesmen and our city magistrates were aware of the magnitude and value of the service thus rendered to the commonwealth, and of the important bearing of the "Mission School" system upon the solution of that increasingly difficult problem—the adjustment of a republican form of government to the exigencies of vast and rapidly growing cities. To our brethren in these cities we would say—"Give all diligence to secure the multiplication and efficiency of Mission schools."

And among the facts reported by our Presbyteries, none are more gratifying than those embodying the results of labours among children. In one case, some forty souls were added to the communion of the Church in one revival, and nearly all of them among the children and youth. In some instances, children as early as in the ninth and tenth year of their age are reported as giving hopeful evidence of conversion. Two or three other Presbyteries report additions to the Church from the Sabbath-school, of as many as twenty and twenty-five each. A very large number of Presbyteries report the flourishing condition of their Sabbath-schools, and an increasing attention to this kind of labour within their bounds.

One Presbytery alone, reports upon labours among the coloured race. This is a subject worthy of much consideration, and it is feared that, especially in our large cities, there are multitudes of these people almost as much in need of Christian effort as the children of heathenism in foreign lands.

It is peculiarly gratifying to record the manifest advance made during the year in the grace of giving. Liberality is not only classed among the graces, but it is evidently a grace which lies in peculiarly close relationship with the conversion of the world. Unless the world is to be converted by miracle, a profuse and abounding liberality must accompany and crown all other Christian graces.

Now, it is a fact as gratifying, as to many it will be surprising, that during this year of pecuniary depression and distress, the contributions to our standing objects of Christian benevolence, from the portions of the land accessible to appeal, have actually reached a higher aggregate than that of former years. The amount given to the Disabled Ministers' Fund has been doubled. Very many Christians and churches have begun to contribute to causes heretofore neglected, and there cannot be a shadow of doubt that in proportion to their income the gifts of our Christian brethren have been very much larger than ever before.

And wild as has been the national excitement, and oppressive the solitudes, and all-engrossing the various topics of the times during the year, God has not left himself without precious witnesses of his power to save. Here and there on our Zion the Spirit of God has come down like rain upon the mown grass. Revivals of religion, of greater or less power, have been enjoyed in the Presbyteries of Ebenezer, St. Louis, Missouri, Highland, Chippewa, Kaskaskia, Muncie,

Whitewater, Oxford, Cincinnati, Marion, New Lisbon, Steubenville, Allegheny City, Beaver, Raritan, Newton, Nassau, Elizabethtown, New York, North River, and New Brunswick. Respecting the last, we make the following quotation from the interesting Narrative submitted by that Presbytery:

"In several churches of the Presbytery there has appeared, during the winter, a very unusual and gratifying awakening to religious duty. The most important case of this kind which we have the privilege of recording, is that of the College of New Jersey at Princeton. The entire current session of the College thus far has been marked by a personal attention of the students to religion—not only new and general, but singularly deep and healthful, and manifest in its effects upon the conduct of the whole body of students. The movement has been characterized by the personal labours of many of the students themselves in behalf of their fellows, and has thus far resulted in bringing some forty to the profession of their hope in Christ. The same revival of the spirit of prayer has visited all the three Presbyterian churches of Princeton, touching all classes of people in the town, and has yielded some sixty additions to the full communion of the Church. The church of Hamilton Square has enjoyed a similar unanimity of special attentions to religion, and has reaped permanent fruit from it, in a large accession to the communion."

From the distant shores of the Pacific, where so lately rolled the Oregon and Sacramento, hearing "no sound save their own dashings," our brethren send us words of encouragement. All the various machinery of the Church is coming rapidly into active and efficient service; and we are assured, by the Presbytery of California, that the Church is constantly gaining power there, though its advance is disputed at every step, not only by a bold, defiant infidelity, but by actual, organized heathenism.

Our beloved brethren of the Presbytery of Ningpo, in China, assure us that the past year has been, with them, one of "general prosperity." They speak of the "increased efficiency of native assistants"—of the "progress of the Christians in knowledge and spirituality"—of "the addition of ten new converts to the visible Church"—of the organization of a new church, comprising thirty-two adult Christians—and of six native candidates for the ministry under their care. Amidst revolutionary overturnings there, they have found distinguished favour and protection, and their hearts are full of encouragement and hope.

In the Presbytery of Siam, the good work is going forward. Our brethren there are bearing the burden and heat of the day. "Regular services," they write, "have been maintained at each of the stations. The attendance has been good, and in many instances marked attention has been given to the truth." Some few converts have been added, and the brethren there are crying to the Lord of the harvest to send forth more labourers into the harvest.

Across the wide Atlantic also, our brethren at Corisco assure us that there is abundant cause for gratitude for the success vouchsafed in their labours. Nineteen persons have, during the year, been gathered into the Church from among the heathen—six of these upon the main land, in connection with the "labours of our Scripture readers." "The missionary work," they say, "is quite outstripping the ability of the present number of labourers." The heathen themselves are loudly calling for the gospel.

Thus, beloved brethren, our Church is spreading its arms around the world. It is a golden candlestick, whose light even now reaches the deepest recesses of the heathen world; while in our own land millions of souls, and all the great interests of humanity, see the light, and feel the warmth, of its rays.

In closing this Narrative, we would call attention to one vast and desolating vice—more destructive of human life than war or pestilence, filling homes with sorrow, alms-houses with paupers, and prisons with criminals—we mean the vice of drunkenness. With scarcely a solitary exception, the Narratives of the Presbyteries announce and deplore an increase of this sin—not within, but around our churches; not among our members, but among those who else might become members with us of the Church of Christ. It seems as if the efforts of the virtuous in past years, to stay the onward sweep of intemperance had resulted only as a temporary dam across the stream, to heave back and pile up the accumulating waters for a surge upon us, that now bids defiance to all hindrance, inflicting present, and threatening future ills of unparalleled magnitude. We are persuaded that exaggeration upon this subject is almost impossible. None who minge with their fellow-men, and certainly no ministers of the gospel, need be told what crowds of men are thus imbruted—what numbers of women, but a few years since so happy and hopeful, are doomed to the slow, awful martyrdom of the drunkard's wife—what hordes of children are beggared in their lives, and ruined in their morals. And who shall tell the story of our young men? As Augustus to Varus, the bereaved Republic cries, "O give me back my legions!" and like Rachel, the Church weeps for her sons, and refuses to be comforted because they are not. Every interest of patriotism, humanity, and religion, pleads for every effort that can be hopefully put forth for the hindrance, and, if it may be, for the extinction of this advancing and threatening evil.

Finally, beloved, rejoicing in past attainments and past conquests, let us reach forth after the full fruit of the Spirit in our own experience—"Love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." And whatsoever our hands find to do, let us do it with our might.

Of these, David J. Beale came with regular dismissal from the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny; L. P. Bowen, W. Alfred McAttee, and George L. Wolfe, from the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky; Robert A. Condit, and William H. Jeffries, from the Seminary at Chicago; George M. Life, from the Union Theological Seminary, Virginia; S. P. Pratt, returned with certificate from the Seminary at Columbia, South Carolina; George R. Pierce came from the Theological Department of Madison University; Timothy K. Wilcox from the Theological Department of Yale College; and Kenneth J. Grant from the Halifax Theological Seminary, Nova Scotia.

Besides these, there have been in attendance during more or less of the term, Dr. J. B. Conyers, graduate of Madison University, (a Baptist minister;) George N. Johnston, graduate of the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny; John H. Carpenter, graduate of the Seminary at Chicago; John Burrows, S. B. Dod, and William H. Hodge, graduates of Princeton Theological Seminary.

The whole number in connection has been one hundred and seventy.

There has been good health generally, and much diligence in study, and unusual interest and fervour in the exercises of devotion. Six or seven of the Senior Class have offered themselves to be sent upon the Foreign Missionary service, and a larger proportion than usual of the two lower classes contemplate the same destination.

One student, Otis B. Webster, died, during the term, of disease, which had been gaining upon him insidiously for years. Though quite sudden at the last, his death was happy, and full of peaceful resignation.

At the close of the session, the students were examined by a committee of the Board for five successive days, and they report great gratification at the result.

Certificates of having finished the whole course of study of three years, were conferred on the following forty-one students, to wit: R. L. Adams, Joseph G. Burgster, J. M. Carmichael, E. Clarke Cline, Sanford H. Cobb, Francis James Collier, H. E. Crawford, William B. Darrach, Robert Edgar, J. William Edie, Walter Forsyth, John Fowler, Louis R. Fox, Kenneth J. The whole number who have been in connection with the Seminary during the past year, is one hundred and fifty-eight, of whom one hundred and thirty-four have been in actual attendance. The greater part of those who have been absent, have been engaged in other labour, by the consent or order of their respective Presbyteries, some in the army, and some teaching.

The following thirty-three students, having completed the regular course of instruction, have been awarded the diploma of the Institution, viz. William W. Anderson, Joseph Dole Barstow, Robert A. Blackford, John C. Bliss, Alanson R. Day, John W. Dinsmore, J. Edgar Dixon, Elijah R. Donehoo, Robert B. Farrer, Henry Fulton, James H. Gray, Oscar A. Hills, Samuel H. Holiday, C. D. Huston, George W. Jackson, Samuel W. Madden, S. Fulton Magill, Charles Beatty Magill, John C. McCombs, James W. McKean, Milton McMillan, David M. Miller, George Paull, Stephen Phelps, John W. Potter, Gilbert M. Potter, Levi Richer, William R. Sibbet, J. St. Clair Stuchell, David Thompson, John Bacon Vawter, Henry Woods, Fred. R. Wotring.

The health of Professors and students has been uniformly good. Two members of the graduating class have died during the term; one, Mr. John C. Schreiber, from the remote effect of a surgical operation; the other, Mr. R. J. Moore, from hereditary consumption. Both these were ripe in their piety and their fitness for the great change. Mr. Moore had devoted himself to the foreign field, and been accepted as a missionary to Japan.

Five or more of this class have already offered themselves to the work of Foreign Missions.

The Faculty report that the attention paid to the studies of the course has been exemplary, and great interest has been displayed in the exercises of extempore preaching and debate. The devotional seasons have also been full of life and warmth; and the impression left upon the students from the divine dealings with the Senior Class, in the removal of two of their number, has been marked and salutary. The students have also displayed great zeal in establishing and conducting mission Sabbath-schools in the two cities, and assisting in the praying assemblies of the various churches, gaining thus important experience and practical training for their great work.

The students have been examined in the presence of a Committee of the Board, who report their high gratification with the results, not only as regards the number and variety of the subjects of sacred learning which have been brought under review, but also in the degree of proficiency which has been exhibited by the several classes.

The Board are called, in the providence of God, to report the death of two of their number during the past year, viz., Rev. Allan D. Campbell, D. D., one of the oldest members of the Board, whose time, strength, and gifts have been freely and zealously devoted to the interests of this Institution; and the Rev. Henry G. Comingo, D. D., for many years one of the most punctual and interested of our number. We part with these brethren with sorrow, in that we shall see their faces no more in the flesh, while we are comforted in the belief that our loss was their gain.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the sessions of the General Assembly, viz.

Ministers.

Allan D. Campbell, D. D.
 Samuel Wilson, D. D.
 George Marshall, D. D.
 William D. Howard, D. D.
 Alexander B. Brown, D. D.
 Elliott E. Swift,
 Leland R. McAboy, D. D.

Ruling Elders.

Alexander Laughlin,
 Francis G. Bailey,
 B. Rush Bradford.

There is one vacancy for one year, occasioned by the death of the Rev. Henry G. Comingo, D. D.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

W. B. McILVAINE, Secretary.

The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, in submitting to the General Assembly their seventeenth annual statement, have the pleasure to inform them that notwithstanding the unhappy state of our country, so seriously affecting benevolent enterprises generally, we have been enabled to make a slight onward progress. All of our permanent funds have been slightly increased, whilst our endowment fund is not yet adequate to the support of the Professors; yet, from the careful investment of the fund, and special contributions of a few friends, we have been enabled to pay promptly their salaries.

The Treasurer, whose account has been carefully verified by the auditors, reports the following as the present state of the different permanent funds, viz.,

The Endowment Fund,	$77,671 20
The Scholarship Fund, (fifteen scholarships,)	28,679 50
The Library Fund,	4,700 00
The Sustentation Fund,	1,190 00
	<hr/>
	$112,240 70
	<hr/> <hr/>

The receipts and disbursements during the past year have been as follows :

Receipts.

Balance on hand as per last report,	$362 74
Interest proceeds of loans,	7026 13
Cash for contingent expenses,	2332 25
Cash for the endowment of the fourth Professor,	997 40
Mrs. Key's estate for Scholarship Fund,	2000 00
“ “ on account of a second Scholarship,	487 50
Cash from loans returned,	7667 65
	$20,873 67

Disbursements.

Interest and salaries of Professors,	$7431 90
Contingent expenses,	2022 93
Invested in bond and mortgage,	7792 61
Cash on hand to be re-invested,	3626 23
	<hr/> <hr/>

The Librarian reports there has been donated to the Institution during the year, from that firm friend of theological education, the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., our hundred and sixty-four volumes of valuable works. Also, books from the following persons, viz.

Rev. W. B. Sprague, D. D.—Annals of the Pulpit (Methodist.)

Rev. William M. Engles, D. D.—Vol. IV. Gieseler's Church History.

Rev. William Annan—Difficulties of Armenian Methodism.

Luke Loomis, Esq.—one volume.

Rev. James M. Olmstead—English, Hebrew, and Chaldee Concordance of the Old Testament, two large volumes, London edition, 1843.

The Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge, Vol. XII.

To all of whom the Board return their grateful acknowledgments.

It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our number the Rev. Allan D. Campbell, D. D., one of the earliest friends and corporators of this Institution, whose memory is held in grateful recollection by this Board, and whose demise has caused a vacancy to be filled hereafter.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

JOHN T. LOGAN, Secretary.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Ninth Annual Report, as follows:

During the session now terminated, the whole number of students in attendance has been eleven. Of these, the following new students have been admitted since our last report:

John Rule, graduate of Centre College, Kentucky.
Joseph H. Byers, educated privately.

This serious diminution in the number of students from former years, was to be expected. Within thirty days of the opening of the session in September last, Kentucky became the seat of war. A camp of Union soldiers was established within seven miles of Danville, and the whole southern border of the state was occupied by the Confederate army. The battle of Wildcat occurred soon after the session began, within forty-five miles of the Institution. It was hardly to be expected, indeed, that the Seminary could go on at all; but, by the blessing of God, the course of instruction has not been interrupted for a day by the distracted state of public affairs.

The following named students having completed the course of study prescribed in the Plan of the Seminary, and having sustained an examination in the several departments, in the presence of the Board of Directors, have received the certificate of the Seminary, viz.

Joshua Barbee, of Kentucky; Richard Carson, of Virginia; Arthur Folsom, of Massachusetts; R. H. Kinnaird, of Kentucky; G. H. Rout, of Kentucky; and John C. Young, of Kentucky.

The conduct and application of the students have been highly satisfactory.

In our last report we informed the General Assembly that Dr. Joseph T. Smith, who had been elected to the chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government in 1860, had accepted the office and entered upon its duties, and would be inaugurated on the second day of the next meeting of the Synod of Kentucky, at Harrodsburg, should the way be clear. At the time appointed, the Board met in Harrodsburg, according to adjournment, and had a conference with Dr. Smith. The inauguration, however, did not take place, because Dr. Smith was willing to be formally inducted into the office only on such conditions, and with an understanding incompatible with the tenure of the office as prescribed by the General Assembly. But he performed the duties of the office for several months during the first part of the session just closed, and then returned to Baltimore, when his connection with the Seminary ceased. From this statement the Assembly will see that this chair is still vacant.

By reference to the Report of the Board of Trustees, it will be seen that the financial condition of the Seminary is such as will enable them to pay the salaries, as at present fixed by the Assembly, of a full corps of Professors.

With much gratification the Board report very important improvements since their last annual meeting. A Library building, of substantial structure, and a commodious building for the accommodation of a greatly increased number of students, have been erected. Hence, notwithstanding the depressed state of things in the country, and the many discouragements with which the Seminary has had to contend, we cannot but hope that, with the blessing of the great Head of the Church upon it and its able corps of Professors, a vast career of usefulness is now before it.

The Faculty report an addition of about two hundred volumes to the Library in the course of the year. Of these, one hundred and eighty-two volumes were bequeathed by the late Rev. David S. Tod, by the terms of whose will the Seminary had the right of selecting these books out of his library.

The Board further reports that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the General Assembly of this year:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
Ezekiel Forman,	James N. West,
W. L. Breckinridge,	Luther Smith,
James Smith,	Samuel E. Hibben,
Edwin H. Rutherford,	John Todd,
J. J. Bullock,	Lewis Whiteman,
John L. Yantis,	J. J. White,
F. G. Strahan,	John Thompson,
R. McInnis,	E. H. Porter.
John M. Worrall.	William Ernst.

The Board regret that the attendance of the Directors on its meetings has always been, and continues to be, inadequate to the highest interests of the Institution, many of them failing to be present at any time during the term of their office.

The Board also calls the attention of the Assembly to the fact that a number of the Directors are residents of seceded States.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. F. CALDWELL, President pro tem.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, present the following as their Ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

1. According to the Annual Report of the Financial Agent and Treasurer, received and approved by this Board,

The total cash receipts during the year are	$8462 48
Which, added to the amount of cash on hand from the previous year,	1445 52
Makes a total of	$9908 00

The total expenditures of the year have been,
For salaries and house-rent of Professors,	$5575 00
For general and contingent expenses,	1085 55
For students on scholarships,	280 00
In the erection of the new buildings,	659 75
	$7600 30

Cash Balance.

Cash on hand, April 20th, 1861,	$1445 52
Receipts during the year,	8462 48
	$9908 00
Cash expenditures during the year,	$7600 30
Cash on hand, April 20th, 1862,	2307 70
	$9908 00

2. For the general description and distribution of the funds of this Seminary, the Board refer to their Seventh Annual Report to the General Assembly, in May, 1860, which will be found in its printed Minutes, pp. 84-86. For the effort of this Board to increase the funds of the Institution, by means of a special agency, for the purpose of enlarging its permanent endowment, and of erecting new and more commodious buildings, and the result of that agency, the Board refer to their Eighth Annual Report to the General Assembly, May 1861.

3. For a description of the buildings which the Board determined to erect for the use of the Seminary, and of the funds with which they proposed to erect them, they refer to the same Report. With reference to all these matters, they beg leave to ask special attention to both these Reports.

The buildings described in their last Report have been completed, and will be ready for use at the opening of the next session of the Seminary in September. By means of these improvements, they have placed the large and valuable library of the Institution in a substantial, separate building, very nearly fire-proof. They have a comfortable lecture room, capable of seating about eighty students. They have large and commodious rooms for the accommodation of twenty to thirty students. These buildings have been erected out of funds in the hands of this Board, which, with the exception of a small amount, were of very little value for their income, owing to the irregularity with which the income arising from them was paid.

4. The great depression in the market value of the funds of the Institution, alluded to in the last Report, reached its lowest point before the close of the year 1861. Since that time they have been gradually and steadily rising in value. This, however, does not affect the income arising from those funds.

5. The apprehension expressed by the Board in their last Report, in regard to the falling off of the income, has been realized to a very serious extent; and this from two principal causes. In the first place, the bank stocks have yielded but about one-half their usual dividends; in the second place, a large portion—indeed, the largest portion, of the corporate bonds have failed to pay any interest during the past year. As a consequence of this, the income proper of the funds of the Institution have scarcely equalled its actual expenditures—requiring a draft, to a small amount, on the surplus of the previous year. The causes which have produced this deplorable state of things are too well known to require any reference here.

6. The present condition of things, in the opinion of this Board, fully justifies the earnestness with which they have on former occasions urged the most vigorous efforts for the complete endowment of the Institution.

7. While the Board anticipates a serious falling off in the income of the next year, as compared with that of several previous years, they nevertheless indulge a cheerful confidence in the prospects before them—an abiding faith in the liberality of God's people to come forward and relieve the Institution, should it fall into temporary embarrassment; and a still more abiding faith, that the great Head of the Church, who has bestowed upon this Seminary such signal blessings in the times that are past, will not desert it in the times to come.

By order and on behalf of the Board.

MARK HARDIN, President.

HEMAN H. ALLEN, Assistant Secretary.

Danville, Kentucky, May 6, 1862.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-West respectfully offer to this General Assembly their third Annual Report, as follows, viz.

During the Session now terminated there have been eleven students in attendance, of whom the following six were received at the beginning of the year:

George Norcross,	graduate of	Monmouth College,	Illinois.
Warren Norton,	“	Des Peres Institute,	Mo.
Rollin S. Adams,	“	Beloit College,	Wis.
S. F. Denton,	“	Hanover College,	Ind.
Maurice Waller,	“	Centre College,	Ky.
Henry F. Nelson,	“	Washington College,	Pa.

The following three students, having pursued the full course of study prescribed in the plan of the Seminary, and having satisfactorily sustained a thorough examination before a Committee of the Board of Directors, have been awarded the usual certificate, viz., John S. Dunning, Samuel Searight, and William G. Thomas.

The report of the Committee to attend the examination indicates that the usual course of instruction in all the classes has been maintained throughout the session, notwithstanding the vacancy of two Professorships the greater part of the time; and that the progress of the students has been highly commendable.

A few weeks prior to the opening of the session, the Rev. J. M. Krebs, D. D., advised the Executive Committee of the Board of his declination of the Professorship to which he had been appointed by the last General Assembly. The duties of that department were assumed by the other three Professors; and the Executive Committee engaged the services of the Rev. J. D. Pering, a graduate of last year, as teacher of Hebrew. Early in the session, the Rev. William M. Scott, D. D., was compelled to suspend his labours, by reason of failing health. Then the duties of his department devolved on the remaining two Professors, with the above exception of Mr. Pering's instruction. This additional burden to their usual labours, the Rev. Drs. Lord and Halsey have sustained in a manner so beneficial to the interests of the Seminary, as to command the sincere gratitude of the Board, and of all who rejoice in the prosperity of the institution.

The Board would express their profound grief at the divine dispensation which has removed from this world the Rev. Dr. Scott, who rested from his labours on the 22d of December last. Though his loss falls heavily upon our Seminary, at a time, and under circumstances when seemingly least able to bear it, yet we acquiesce in this manifestation of God's will, well persuaded that his wise and holy purpose shall be none the less surely accomplished through its instrumentality.

There are thus two vacancies in the Faculty of the Seminary. But in consequence of the embarrassed state of the country, the Board does not deem it expedient to ask this General Assembly to attempt to fill them.

The Library of the Seminary has been increased during the past year by the addition to the “Corning Library” of thirty-eight volumes, purchased with funds furnished by the generous donor whose name it bears. The general Library has received an accession of about fifteen volumes from the Rev. A. A. E. Taylor of Dubuque, Iowa, and of about six from the Rev. S. T. Wells of California; also two volumes from a lady—making the total addition to the Library of the Seminary, sixty-one volumes, most of them large, rare, and valuable, several having been ordered by the Faculty from Europe.

Owing to the unparalleled depression of business throughout the country, nothing whatever has been accomplished during the year, in the matter of increasing the general Fund of the Seminary. The Board were, consequently, wholly unable to enter on the work of erecting Seminary buildings, even though the valuable donation of land was thereby jeopardized. On the application of the Board, the donors cheerfully granted an extension of one year's time, within which the gift might be made available. This extension expires during the coming May, so that we have little prospect of retaining the land.

The Board herewith submit copies of the statement of the Secretary, and the Balance Sheet of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees; also, for the satisfaction of the Assembly, an analysis of the Treasurer's extended exhibit, made by our Executive Committee, and embodied in their report to the Board.

The Board are happy to state that satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Trustees of Hanover College, with regard to the assets of the Seminary at New Albany, by which our Seminary may ultimately realize a valuable acquisition to its funds.

The Rev. Dr. Warren's claim, which was referred to the Board by the last Assembly, will be liquidated from the proceeds of the New Albany property, as soon as it can be made available.

The Board will only add that the term of service of the following Directors expires during the sessions of this Assembly, viz.

Ministers.

S. T. Wilson,
J. M. Buchanan, •
E. N. Ewing,
J. P. Conkey,
Samuel Steel, D. D.

Ruling Elders.

C. A. Spring,
Julius T. Clark,
William Bailey,
Thomas Foster,
Hon. R. P. Lowe.

These vacancies it will devolve on this Assembly to fill.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

JOHN M. FARIS, Secretary.

Chicago, April 3d, 1862.

Extract from the Report of the Executive Committee, presented to the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-West, at their meeting April 2—4, 1862, and ordered by the Board to be attached to their Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The Committee have had before them the Annual Exhibits of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, an analysis of which reveals the following facts, which the Board of Directors will doubtless be interested to learn, viz.

I. RECEIPTS.

1. Balance from last year,	$117 45
2. Collected on Miscellaneous Notes, &c., obtained by Agents and Professors in 1860,	1768 79
3. On account of two Scholarships,	150 00
4. Interest to December 1, 1861, on loan of $20,000, on account of Endowment Fund,	2000 00
5. Interest to Sept. 14, 1861, on account of Endowment Fund,	4167 10
	== $8203 34

II. DISBURSEMENTS.

1. Paid Professors on account, $2278 54, $2279 53, and $2354 54,	6912 61
2. Paid Tutor on account,	100 00
3. Paid students on Scholarship account,	125 00
4. Paid rent, balance of last year, $116 45: in part of this year, $416 69,	533 14
6. Paid on Contingent account, coal $192 86, &c.,	362 18
Balance, cash on hand,	170 41
	== 8032 93

III. DEBTS.

1. Due on rent of building to close of contract, May 1,	116 67
2. Due to Professors to May 1, Dr. Lord, $2683 77, Dr. Halsey, $2682 78,	5366 55
3. Due estate of the late Dr. Scott,	2000 00
4. Due Rev. J. D. Pering as Tutor, $140; and, 5. Balance on Contingent account, $30,	170 00

Now due
7653 22

6. To this add amount to be due Professors by Sept. 1, 1862, 1666 66

To be due by Sept. 1,
$9319 88

IV. RESOURCES.

1. Balance cash on hand, as shown per above statement,	170	41
2. Interest on $20,000, loan on Endowment account, to be due June 1, 1862,	1000	00
3. Interest from C. H. McCormick, to be due Sept. 14, 1862,	4500	00
4. Notes and subscriptions assumed by Treasurer to be good, and due in 1862,	1602	00
To which may be added
1. Accumulated interest on loan of $5000, unavailable at present anyhow,	$1125	00
2. A protested check in abeyance, issue uncertain,	291	40
3. Due in 1862, on miscellaneous notes and subscriptions, reported by Treasurer as dubious, probably uncollectable,	2276	50

Total unreliable, $3692 90

1. From this Exhibit, it appears the Treasurer has on hand,	170	41
To meet claims now due, and all of which should be paid at once, amounting to		7653 22
2. That he may reasonably expect by Sept. 14, 1862,	7272	41
To meet liabilities that will be due by Sept. 1, 1862, (without interest on arrearages, and on the supposition that no expense whatever is to be incurred during the summer, save the accruing salaries of the two Professors,) amounting to		9319 88
The foregoing is a correct copy.

STATEMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

To the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-West :

The Board of Trustees herewith submit the annual statement of the Treasurer, with a statement of amount of notes now held by him, belonging to the Seminary (General Fund,) and his estimate of the value of the same.

Of the donation of Mr. McCormick, of one hundred thousand dollars, the first instalment only, of twenty-five thousand, has been paid. The second instalment,* due September 14, 1861, of the same amount, is still in the hands of Mr. McCormick, which, with the instalments due September 14, 1862, and 1863, of twenty-five thousand dollars each, are drawing six per cent. interest, due September 14 of each year.

Messrs. Scates & McCormick have been appointed a committee to present to the Board of Directors, at the present meeting, the matter of the salary of Dr. Rice, as Professor.

Mr. G. P. Randall has commenced suit against the Board of Trustees on his claim against the Seminary for Plans of buildings at Hyde Park. H. G. Miller, Esq., has been requested to act as attorney in defending the suit.

The Board have not considered the means in their hands as sufficient to warrant them in commencing improvements on the lands donated (conditionally) by Ogden and others.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1861-62.

During the year, death has removed four of their number to better services in the Church above—Rev. Dr. A. D. Campbell, Rev. George McNeill, Rev. Dr. L. Cheeseman, and A. W. Mitchell, M. D., and we are admonished to labour earnestly in a cause whose interests we are to subserve while we live. The Rev. Thomas L. Janeway, D. D., was elected sole Secretary in June, 1861, and entered on his duties in July. The Board at that time was greatly embarrassed, and its debts had increased to $25,000, in a period of financial difficulties, and amid the commotions of civil war. By the blessing of God, and his grace conferred on the churches, the debt was reduced, at the close of the financial year, to $4900, and all the missionaries who had reported, were paid in full to March 1, 1862.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

The number of missionaries in commission March 1, 1861, was 518, to which have been added, of those whose commissions expired, to March 1, 1862, 121, making the whole number 639.

The number of churches and stations in whole or in part supplied, (as far as reported,) was 803.

Eighteen churches are reported as having been organized. Added on examination 1782, and on certificate 1035.

The whole number in communion with churches connected with the Board, is 20,609.

The Sabbath-schools number 347; their teachers 2813, and scholars 17,778. Baptisms reported, 2658.

As one-half of the missionaries in commission have not reported, the returns are manifestly inadequate, and do not express the facts.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The amount promised to the missionaries, from March 1, 1861, to March 1, 1862, has been, at the office in Philadelphia, $60,163.06; and at Louisville, $7737.50; at the office of the Southwestern Committee at New Orleans, to the end of the monthly reports in June 3, 1861, $4900—a total of $72,800.56. This shows a very material decrease on previous years, caused, in part, by the embarrassments of our Board, and in part by the disturbance of the country, convulsed, in so large a portion of the field once covered by the Board, by civil war.

RECEIPTS.

The entire amount of moneys received from all sources, during the fiscal year, was $85,332.62.

The amount paid at the treasury in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterian treasuries, as far as we are advised, was $86,406.06; at the office at Louisville, $3472.05; and at New Orleans, $10,648.12—a sum total of payments during the year of $100,526.23—leaving balances in the treasury at Philadelphia of $14.83; and at Louisville, $104.11. The missionaries, as already stated, were paid in full, as far as they had reported, to March 1, 1862; but our reports are constantly coming in, and therefore appropriations maturing. All the receipts on which we can reasonably depend for the ensuing six months, will, we fear, be more than absorbed.

The aggregate receipts in the field covered by the Committees at Philadelphia and Louisville, during the year, have been less, as compared with those in the same field of the year before, $9148.93. There has been a decrease in legacies, in Philadelphia, (where only any legacies have been reported, except one of $25 at Louisville,) of $7470.01; an increase of miscellaneous and individual donations of $6771.04. The increase from the churches, at the office at Philadelphia, was $3739.92. The decrease at Louisville, from the same source, was $12,189.88.

OUR MISSIONS.

The embarrassments of the Board have prevented new missions, and we have struggled to maintain the positions occupied in former years. It was painful to receive, and turn away from new applications, when suitable men were ready, and fields of bright promise offered. In parts of the field, war has driven some from their churches, and fears are entertained, that in some cases the work of reconstruction will be required. The work of years of missionary labour, as far as man can see, is swept away as by a mountain storm.

We have continued, as formerly, to employ a number of missionaries among the foreign population. Two have laboured among the French, one among the Belgians, one among the Welsh, and thirty-two among the Germans. We regret to say, that the results are not so cheering as we could desire, nor the future so flattering. Hindrances are in the way, and, so far, we are not able to specify their causes. Itinerant labour, to a diminished extent, has been employed. Many of our missionaries perform, in adjoining territory, this service, and carry the gospel to regions beyond their fixed and assigned fields.

CLOTHING.

Clothing, valued at $16,004.07, has been received during the year, and distributed among the missionaries. Of this amount, $15,453.56 was received at the office in Philadelphia, and $550.51 at the office in Louisville. These are given as special donations—never claimed or considered as part of their salaries; and during the year past, have been most opportune, and gone far to relieve men on whom the needed and requisite retrenchment fell heavily.

By a unanimous vote of the General Assembly, the Executive Committee at Louisville, and all the Advisory Committees, were discontinued. The entire work will be conducted hereafter at the office in Philadelphia.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1862.

PART I.—MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

CANDIDATES.—The annexed table exhibits the operations of the Board of Education in the department of candidates for the ministry:

The number of new candidates received has been	74
Making in all, from the beginning (in 1819)	3164
In their Theological course,	155
" Collegiate "	156
" Academical "	64

The aggregate number of candidates this year is one hundred and thirty below that of last year. This decrease is deeply to be regretted, arresting, as it must in a short time, the progress of our Church in all her departments of evangelical effort, both at home and abroad.

Of the causes contributing to this decrease in the number of candidates received during the year just closed, there is but one over whose continuance and operation the Assembly can be expected to exercise much influence. This cause, which is doubtless the most potent for evil of the whole, is the failure of the churches to furnish the Board with the means necessary to enable them to meet promptly the claims of the candidates under their care, as those claims become due; and the Board would respectfully and earnestly invoke the Assembly to take into consideration the whole plan of Systematic Beneficence, and adopt some measure which may secure from all the churches an annual collection for the sustentation of the interest they represent.

The Board would earnestly solicit the attention of the Assembly to the following statistics, and the inferences they warrant in respect to the increase of the ministry, as compared with the increase of the membership of our Church, within a period of ten years:

	Number of Ministers.	Number of Members.	Ratio of Ministers to Members.
1852,	2039	210,414	1 to 103
1853,	2139	219,263	1 to 102
1854,	2203	225,404	1 to 102
1855,	2261	231,404	1 to 102
1856,	2320	223,755	1 to 96
1857,	2411	244,825	1 to 101
1858,	2468	259,335	1 to 105
1859,	2577	279,630	1 to 108
1860,	2656	292,927	1 to 110
1861,	2767	300,814	1 to 108

After making all proper allowance for the imperfection of the Presbyterian Reports which furnish the basis of the foregoing table, it must be admitted that the increase of our ministry has not kept pace with the increase of our membership during the past ten years. It may be difficult to ascertain the precise extent of this decrease, but there can be no doubt of the fact, that the increase in our ministerial supply has come short of our denominational progress. The measure of this decrease during the period embraced in the preceding table, as indicated by the statistics, is at least five per centum! So large a decrease, within so short a period, in the number of those contemplating an entrance upon the ministry, is sufficient to awaken serious apprehension in the minds of all lovers of our Zion. If the Presbyterian Church cannot make ministerial provision to meet the demands of her own increase, it is manifest that her progress is at an end, even as regards the vineyard she now cultivates.

The field to which our Church is commissioned, however, is not to be measured by the present boundaries of her vineyard. Placed, as she is, among the foremost of the evangelical denominations, in a land whose annual increase equals the population of some of the minor States of Europe, she must not close her eyes to the responsibilities of her position, or the obligations under which she is laid, by her high commission and the mercies of God, to furnish her quota of labourers to this mighty, widening harvest field. Nor will the Presbyterian Church be content to regard herself as a debtor to America alone. Spurning the boundaries of past achievements, she has recognised the full import of her commission, and gone forth to claim the heathen for the inheritance of her Lord, and the uttermost parts of the earth for his possession. From these high places of the field of conflict she cannot retire. She cannot turn a deaf ear to the Macedonian cry now uttered by the teeming millions of China. She cannot, she will not, turn away from India, now consecrated by the blood of her martyred sons. Holding in her hand the title-deed of her Master to an inheritance coterminous with the habitable world, she has embarked on an embassy in which she may not falter until the kingdoms of this world shall have become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ.

The following table will inform the Assembly as to the comparative annual results of the operations of the Board, both in respect to new candidates and the aggregate number of candidates for the past eleven years:

Years.	New Candidates.	Whole No. of Candidates.
1852 . . .	69 . . .	388
1853 . . .	81 . . .	370
1854 . . .	104 . . .	342
1855 . . .	125 . . .	364
1856 . . .	102 . . .	382
1857 . . .	92 . . .	383
1858 . . .	103 . . .	385
1859 . . .	141 . . .	391
1860 . . .	181 . . .	492
1861 . . .	156 . . .	505
1862 . . .	74 . . .	375

THE OFFICE.—During the year now closed, the operations of the Board have been conducted upon the most economic principles. The prospective decrease in their income, indicated by the national troubles, and the almost universal prostration of business, which prevailed at the time of their annual meeting for organization, led the Board to reduce, as low as possible, the expenses of the office. At that meeting, therefore, after electing the Rev. William Chester, D.D., to the office of Corresponding Secretary, as successor to Dr. Van Rensselaer, the Board, concurring in the advice of the last Assembly, did not appoint an additional Corresponding Secretary. To supply the amount of service required in the office, the Rev. Robert Watts was elected Assistant.

STATE OF THE TREASURY.—The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board, during the ecclesiastical year ending May 1st, 1862:

I. CANDIDATES' FUND.		II. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.
Receipts, . . .	$39,344 03		$3,687 74

		Of the African Fund $1000 is funded.

The total receipts of the year from all sources are $43,043.01. The total receipts of the Candidates' Fund are $39,344.03, a decrease from the receipts of last year in this fund of $6,209.51.

The following table shows the receipts for twelve years, in the fund for candidates:

1851	$31,721 80
1852	32,617 04
1853	32,519 52
1854	34,961 26
1855	35,766 71
1856	40,680 04
1857	43,372 31
1858	47,103 07
1859	52,077 92
1860	64,637 19
1861	45,553 54
1862	39,344 03

The causes which have operated to the diminution of the number of candidates, have also affected, to a very great degree, the aggregate amount of funds. In accordance with the directions of the Assembly, the Board have hitherto embraced in their Annual Reports, the operations, both in candidates and funds, of several Presbyteries "which prefer to retain their own organizations, and control directly the education of their own candidates." A very large number of these have not corresponded with the office during the year, and the present fiscal report gives no account of their fiscal operations. In addition to this, there are many churches which have been prevented by the state of the country from taking collections on behalf of the Board, or communicating the fruits of that benevolence which has, doubtless, in many instances abounded even amid the poverty and distress incident to war.

Yet, after making all due allowance for the operation of these causes, over which the Assembly cannot be expected to exercise any control, there is a diminution in the amount of the income of the Board which is well fitted to awaken anxiety in the minds of those who are to assume the responsibilities and encounter the toils of this department of the Master's service for another year. As the Treasurer's account testifies, the Board must cross the threshold of a new fiscal year largely in debt. This is a sad fact, and claims the earnest attention of the friends of the ministry of reconciliation. If the Board have been embarrassed throughout the operations of the past year, notwithstanding the fact that they began the year with a small balance on hand, what can they expect but embarrassment and financial restraint, now that they are compelled to face the same difficulties under the pressure of a debt?

Nevertheless, the Board would not despond. They have confidence in the people of God, and are not afraid to put their trust in Him, in whose hands are the springs of wealth and the hearts of all men. They are persuaded that He will call no young man to the ministry, and then cast him upon the cold charities of an unsympathizing world. Whom he calls into the kingdom of his grace, he justifies, and will eventually glorify; and whom he calls to the office of an ambassador, he will sustain by the co-operation of his providence and grace. The Board would, therefore, take encouragement from every additional demand which the Lord of the harvest may make upon their treasury, on behalf of those whom he has called into the field. They would regard the lists of accessions to the roll of ambassadors sent in by the Presbyteries, as so many proofs that it is the design of the Head of the Church to deliver them out of their present embarrassment, and to sustain them amidst the labours of another year.

PART II.—GENERAL EDUCATION.

1. SCHOOLS.—It might have been expected, that this department of the work entrusted to the Board should not only suffer equally with the other departments under their care, but that this, of all others, should be most seriously affected by the curtailment of income, incident to the national distress. This apprehension, the Board are sorry to say, has been sadly and fully realized. Whether the churches were so fully persuaded of the inability of the Board to respond to applications of this class, or whether their zeal on behalf of the religious instruction of the youth of our Church, during the initial steps of their education, has become cold, the fact is, that there have been but few applications for assistance in comparison of former years. It is to be hoped that the waning of interest on this important subject is not so great as this fact would seem to imply, or that if the Church have fallen from her historic position in reference to parochial schools, she will be won back by her watchmen to the old paths in which the Presbyterian Church has trod for centuries, and in which she has achieved her greatest triumphs. The Board would cherish the persuasion that the abatement of interest evinced by the statistics of this department for the year, is more apparent than real, and that the Church, though embarrassed by the calamities which have fallen as a blight upon all enterprises, both civil and religious, still stands by her historic motto, "THE SCHOOL AND THE KIRK."

The Board, however, would make record of their thankfulness, that, through the beneficence of some churches, whose liberality has abounded even in these days of darkness, they have been enabled to do something in this department.

2. ACADEMIES.—The experience of the Board in this department is confirmatory of the wisdom of the Assembly in giving such prominence to academic culture. Every year furnishes fresh proof of the importance of the academy in our educational system. There is a growing conviction of the necessity of a more thorough system of training in our primary and intermediate schools. This conviction is shared, not only by Presbyteries and faculties of colleges, but also by teachers and principals of schools and academies. The increasing thoroughness of our colleges, the progress of the sciences, the demands of an age in advance of all others in the general diffusion of knowledge, have conspired to render this persuasion all but universal. The prevailing sentiment is, that the academy must be elevated, so as to furnish a thorough preparation for entering upon the collegiate curriculum.

The Board are happy to be able to report great progress in regard to this subject, not only in sentiment, but also in the actual elevation of the academic standard; and they hail with gratitude and delight the numerous proofs, furnished by our Colleges and Seminaries, of the beneficial effects of this elevation of the standard, upon the candidates who are now in course of preparation.

There is still evidence, however, that there is room for improvement, especially in the theological instructions communicated at many of these institutions. There is great danger arising from the temptation to popularize our academies, that our Presbyterianism may suffer loss. The position of these institutions in our educational system is such as to render it a matter of the very first importance, that they should be thoroughly pervaded with the leaven of Presbyterianism. It is most desirable that the Presbyterian ministry should have their early training in Presbyterian academies, under the care of Presbyterian teachers. The Board would not be understood as condemning or discountenancing academies not under Presbyterian control. An institution may be essentially Presbyterian, and yet not be governed by a Synod or Presbytery; and the Board rejoice in the prosperity of a number of institutions which, although not formally and directly subject to church authority, are nevertheless nurseries of the faith and polity of the Presbyterian Church.

The number of Presbyterian Academies under the care of the Presbyterian Church, is fifty-eight.

3. COLLEGES.—The troubles incident to the present civil commotions, have wrought great evil to several institutions of this class, which, on former occasions, have had a place in the Reports of the Board. With many of them the Board have been unable to communicate during the current fiscal year. In some of them the course of instruction has been temporarily suspended, and in others the attendance has been so seriously affected as greatly to discourage both professors and students. On the other hand, the Board are happy to be able to report, that some of these institutions have enjoyed unwonted prosperity. God has vouchsafed, in a few instances, an unusual outpouring of his Holy Spirit, which has issued in a large increase of the Church, and has encouraged those who have been the honoured instruments in the work, to hope for a large increase of the ministry. The God of Abraham hath remembered his covenant, and hath recognised the institutions of learning founded by his people, in the outpouring of his Spirit upon their seed.

CONCLUSION.—In entering upon another fiscal year, the Board feel, more than ever, the necessity of walking by faith, and not by sight. Were they to look simply at the things which are seen, they might well be deterred from encountering, for another year, the anxieties and difficulties incident to their stewardship, in these days of universal tribulation. But from their lot they cannot shrink. Looking beyond the things which are seen and temporal—from an exhausted treasury on earth to an inexhaustible treasury in heaven, they would thank God for the hope thus inspired, and gird up their loins for the labours of another year. Remembering the command of Him who has sent his Church into the WORLD, to carry the gospel to every creature, they dare not turn a deaf ear to his call, when, in his providence and grace, he makes a draft upon their resources for the sustentation and equipment of any of his servants whom he may indicate as a herald of his salvation. And though at present clouds are around the pathway by which he is leading the Board, yet they dare not withdraw their hand from the guidance of Him whose friendly crook has directed them safely through all the perils of their past history.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT, APRIL 30, 1862.

The Executive Committee begin their report with a record of the goodness of God towards the missionary work under their care. This has been shown both at home and abroad.

1. At home, instead of ending the year with a heavy debt, as was seriously feared, the Board has been enabled, by the liberal gifts of the friends of this cause, to support the missions in nearly all cases in their usual vigour, to send out new labourers, to occupy new ground in some instances, and to close the year in a satisfactory condition. The Committee take great pleasure in making these statements to the praise of the grace given to their Christian brethren in this year of trial. The gifts of the rich and of the poor have been cast into the Treasury with willing hands, and have been the means of saving this cause from great embarrassment. The aggregate amount of the receipts is less than was acknowledged last year, owing partly to the sums received from legacies and from the Government on account of Indian Schools being less, and also to the withdrawal of contributions by churches in the so-called Seceded States; but the amount received from the churches in other parts of the country, upon whose liberality the Missions must now depend, is in advance of the amount received from the same sources last year. The Receipts were $176,939.47; the Expenditures, $177,892.32; leaving a balance against the Treasury of $952.85.

The indebtedness of the Treasury to a few large donors is gratefully acknowledged, as well as the liberal gifts of the churches. It is mainly to the church collections that the missions should look for support, and the hope is earnestly expressed that these may be largely increased. This is necessary in order to provide for the missions now in the field, and also to enable the Board to send out new labourers. A larger number than usual of these are under appointment as missionaries, if the Lord will; and their services are greatly needed in many places.

2. In the work abroad, the Committee give a full report of the state of the missions among the Indian Tribes; in South America, Western Africa, North India, Siam, China, and Japan; among the Chinese in California, the Jews and some of the Roman Catholic countries of Europe. They lament the suspension of the missions among the Southwestern Indians, and the withdrawal of a large number of missionary labourers from their work, owing to the violence of lawless men. This was a great calamity to those half-Christianized Indians. The missionary work was hindered also by civil war in New Granada; and the end of the year witnessed dark clouds in the horizon of the Ningpo mission in China, from the insurgents taking possession of that city. With these exceptions, the dealings of Divine Providence with the people amongst whom the missions are established have been such as to promote their success. The preaching of the gospel, the Christian instruction of the youth, the distribution of the sacred Scriptures—in short, the usual and ordinary means of grace have been steadily and faithfully employed by sixty-eight ministers of the gospel—aided by eighty-three teachers and other assistant missionaries, and by a growing body of native missionary labourers of various grades, of whom there are now eighty-two. In this brief Abstract it is impossible to enter into minute statements, but it will serve to convey a general idea of the work in progress when it is stated, that nearly five thousand heathen youth are under daily Christian instruction and influence in the schools of the different missions; and also that additions of hopeful converts have been made to churches among the Chinese, Siamese, Hindus, Africans, and in South America, besides others not particularly reported. Some of these new members of the Church are remarkable instances of the power of divine grace; two heathen women, one seventy and the other eighty years of age, were received into the church of Ningpo; the church in Siam received as a member, a man, who may be one of its pillars, whose conversion was effected by the Spirit of God accompanying the study of the Scriptures, without his having ever seen or heard a missionary. On a general review of the missions, the Committee feel greatly encouraged by seeing what God has done with his servants, and how he has opened the door of faith to the gentiles.

The Report contains notices of the removal by death of two ordained missionaries, the wives of three, and several native church members in India and China. Their departure is sincerely lamented, but in every instance a good hope through grace supported them in their last hours. On the other hand, seventeen missionary labourers were sent out during the year to different missions, nine of whom were ordained ministers—three of these returning to their work. Several new assistants were obtained on the ground, from the ranks of native converts, which is regarded as a cause of thankfulness. The instructions given by one of these brethren to his own people on the coast of Africa, fifty miles from the missionary stations on Corisco, were the means of leading six hopeful converts into the church by baptism. Prayer should be offered especially that native missionary labourers may be sent into the harvest.

The Report concludes with reasons for thanksgiving, and a call to onward movement in the missionary work. This work remains. Multitudes are yet sitting in the shadow of death. Many more labourers could at once find employment in this harvest. Here is need of prayer; here is room for Christian liberality. The times passing over us call for fidelity to our blessed Lord and his cause in the world. But the Church need not fear, her members being found in their lot, at the post of duty; rather they should look for times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, in the outpouring of his Spirit on all the missionary stations, even as at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1862.

The civil war has had a powerful effect on the affairs of this Board. It has been suddenly and totally excluded from carrying forward its accustomed work in the whole Southern portion of our land, containing nearly one-half the area over which its sales and colportage labours have heretofore extended. At the same time, throughout the remainder of the country, the general disturbance and depression of business, the unusual scarcity of money, the universal disposition to avoid parting with money, wherever its expenditure could possibly be avoided, and the new, numerous, and extraordinary claims upon the sympathies and charities of our people, have all tended to reduce greatly the receipts and expenditures of the Board, both from its sales and from the contributions of the churches.

Notwithstanding all these perturbations, struggles, and deficiencies of the past year, the Board finds cause for sincere thankfulness and gratulation in the fact, that by the exercise of unremitting care and prudence, it has been enabled to adhere, without deviation, to its rule of former years, to owe no man anything. Through the darkest months of the year, it has continued to conduct all its business upon the principle of cash payments. By the help and blessing of God, it has reached the end of this extraordinary and trying year, not only without borrowing or running into debt, but with a balance of money in its treasury—a balance much smaller than usual, it is true, but enough to enable it to enter hopefully, and without embarrassment, upon the work of the new year. Not only so, but amidst all the convulsions and troubles of the times, the Board has as yet suffered no pecuniary loss, save such as has arisen indirectly from the decrease of sales and contributions. And it now stands, with its resources unimpaired, and its arrangements complete, ready not only fully to resume, but greatly to enlarge its operations, just as soon as God shall bless us with renewed peace and national prosperity.

I. DEPARTMENT OF PRODUCTION.

The Board has issued during the year
16 new books, of which have been printed	92,750 copies.
2 new tracts,	4,000 "
1 package of twelve Soldier's tracts,	15,000 "
1 Hospital Card,	19,000 "
2 German books,	15,250 "
3 French tracts,	3,000 "
Presbyterian Almanac for 1862,	15,000 "
Total copies of new publications,	164,000 "
The reprints of former publications during the year have been,
Of books,	51,600 "
Of tracts,	414,500 "
Total number of reprints,	466,100 "
Total number of publications during the year,	630,100 "
Total number of books and tracts issued by the Board since its organization,	10,230,788 "

Special mention is made in the Report, of the "Letters of John Calvin," which work has been completed in 4 vols. octavo.

Of the "Soldier's Pocket-Book," an admirable little manual for the use of soldiers, about 90,000 copies, in English and German, had been printed at the date of the Report. Numerous facts are given as indications of its unbounded acceptableness and usefulness.

"The Soldier's Series" of tracts, the "Hospital Cards," "The Soldier's Library," "The Sailor's Companion," &c., have also been extensively circulated, and done a great amount of good.

Of the Home and Foreign Record, the stoppage of the Southern mails caused a decrease of 5000 copies in the number issued. The number printed March 1st, 1862, was 10,400.

The Sabbath-School Visitor continues to be as popular as ever with the Sabbath-schools. The number of subscribers reported to the last General Assembly was 75,000. Owing to the stoppage of the Southern mails, and the severe scarcity of money in the North and West, the subscription list declined to 40,000. After remaining at this low point a very short time, it again began to increase, until, on the first of March, the number issued was 55,000 copies.

The Board once more solicits the aid of pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents and teachers, to introduce the Visitor into their respective schools.

II. DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.

1. Sales in the Depository.—The sales during the year in the Depository have been 110,976 volumes and 646,951 tracts. The net value of the books and tracts thus sold is $16,979.37. This is a large decrease from the amount of bookstore business done in the preceding year. But from the best information derived from publishers, especially from those heretofore trading largely with the South, it is believed that they have generally suffered quite as large a temporary decrease of business during the past year. The above amount is, of course, exclusive of sales and other distributions made by colporteurs, which may be found stated elsewhere in this Report. The catalogue value of works sent to Theological Seminaries, authors, and editors, has been $650.25. The catalogue value of the above issues from the Depository during the year has been $23,289.14.

It should be remembered, that all donations and sales, however made subsequently through colporteurs and others, are originally made in the Depository, i. e., the books are selected, invoiced, and packed there, just as are other sales, although not included in the above amount.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—All grants of books and tracts made by the Executive Committee are made from a special fund, entitled the Distribution Fund. This is supplied by contributions from individual sources, in response to appeals made for this specific use. Its grants have been as follows:

To Mission and other needy Sabbath-schools,	2,242	volumes.
To ships, naval and military stations, and hospitals,	7,184	"
To humane and literary institutions,	1,169	"
To ministers,	242	"
To feeble churches,	229	"
<hr/>
Total volumes granted,	11,329
Pages of tracts granted,	462,362

The amount received for this fund during the year was $2624.05. The value of the above grants was $1818.58.

The principal part of the distributions made among the soldiers and sailors has been made through the agency of those engaged in the colportage work; and whenever this has been the case, their distributions are included in the statistics of colportage distributions, which are hereafter to be given.

3. Distributions by Colportage.—Owing to the heavy balance against the Colportage Fund of the Board at the beginning of the year, to the unpromising prospect of receiving enlarged contributions during the war, and to the difficulties found by the colporteurs in achieving as much as usual at such a time, the Board resolved to add no new names to its list of colporteurs, except in very special cases, until the times had improved. The table of colportage statistics is unusually defective, owing chiefly to the effect of the civil war, and the stoppage of Southern mails.

From the 103 colporteurs who have reported, we give the following summary of results. They have performed within the year 10,191 days, or (allowing 313 working days to a year,) 32 years, 181 days of labour. They have sold 73,318 volumes in the course of their itinerations. The number of volumes given away has been 44,311, which is nearly double the number gratuitously distributed last year. The tracts sent out to colporteurs for gratuitous distribution have amounted to 3,275,825 pages, an increase of 903,809 pages over the preceding year. The number of persons visited by colporteurs has been 479,698. While the above figures indicate that the amount of sales by colporteurs had largely decreased this year, the number of volumes and tracts distributed gratuitously shows that a smaller number of men have done a far larger missionary work than in any former year of the Board's history.

A large proportion of these gratuitous distributions have been made among our soldiers and sailors. Encouraged and enabled to go forward by the contributions of individuals and churches made with especial reference to these classes, the Board has sent large quantities of books and tracts to Fortress Monroe, Hatteras, Port Royal, Fort Pickens, Pensacola, and Ship Island, on our coast. It has furnished large supplies to the camps and regiments in Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, and elsewhere. It has had its colporteurs at Philadelphia, Cairo, Louisville, and other cities, ready to furnish regiments passing through towards the seat of war. It has sent its labourers to the navy yards and on board the national ships wherever accessible, and supplied officers and men with suitable religious reading. Many hospitals for the sick and wounded soldiers have been visited, in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Cairo, Kentucky, Missouri, and elsewhere, and religious books, tracts, and cards, placed in the hands of the sufferers found therein.

The prisoners, too, in the hands of the United States Government, have not been neglected. The prisoners taken at Hatteras were abundantly supplied, while imprisoned in the forts in New York and Boston harbours; and they sent a letter of earnest thanks to the Board, because it had thus remembered them. The thousands of prisoners in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, taken at Forts Henry and Donelson, have also received, eagerly and thankfully, supplies of religious reading. It is believed, upon the best summing up which the circumstances of the case will admit of, that not less than three hundred thousand soldiers and sailors have, by the aid of generous contributors, received from the Board religious books and tracts adapted and sufficient to lead them to the knowledge of Christ and his salvation. And from the reports which have already come to us, we have reason to hope and believe, that in the last great day it will appear that through these pages of religious truth, many a soldier and sailor has been led to that gracious Redeemer, and through him to the possession of eternal life and happiness.

Rev. S. T. Wells has continued his labours as Superintendent of Colportage on the Pacific coast; Dr. C. O. Waters in the Northwest, and Rev. M. G. Knight in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Total of Distribution.—Collecting now the various items of distribution already separately referred to, the aggregate will be as follows:

Volumes sold at the Depository,	110,976
Volumes sold by Colporteurs,	73,318
Volumes given by Colporteurs,	44,311
Granted by the Executive Committee,	11,329

Total volumes distributed, 239,934

Less than last year, 169,512.

The distributions of pages of tracts have been as follows:

By sale at the Depository,	646,951
Gratuitously by Colporteurs,	3,275,825
Granted by the Executive Committee,	462,362

Total pages of tracts distributed, 4,385,138

Greater than last year, 1,103,103.

In addition to these, the Board has issued of the Home and Foreign Record, from 10,400 to 14,500 copies monthly; of the Sabbath-School Visitor, from 45,000 to 75,000 copies monthly, besides a variety of Reports, forms for Systematic Beneficence, Sessional Minutes and Registers, Sabbath-school Class-books, Hospital Cards, &c., in large numbers.

Sales in the Depository,	$19,448 94
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, &c.	650 25
Sales by Colporteurs,	14,052 01
Home and Foreign Record,	4,345 95
Sabbath-School Visitor,	4,994 83

Total of net value, $43,391 98

III. DEPARTMENT OF SUSTENTATION.

The aggregate receipts of the Treasury from all sources, excluding of course the balance on hand at the beginning of the year, have been $68,036. The aggregate expenditures have been $70,700.55. The amount of cash received from sales of books, tracts, and periodicals, has been $40,371.96. The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year was $6,086.36.

The Colportage Fund.—The amount received for Colportage during the year has been $23,171.81, which is less by $5,262.16 than the sum received last year. Last year, however, the Board received for Colportage the sum of $6,473.63 from the Southern and Southwestern States, from which it has this year received nothing. Deducting this amount from the receipts of last year, we find that there has been no loss, but a small gain in this year's receipts from those States with which the Board has been able to hold correspondence. And if we further remember that the condition of Missouri, Kentucky, and a large part of Maryland, has been such that almost nothing has been thence received, we reach the very gratifying fact, that during this year of severe political and financial trouble, the remaining States have not only fully come up to their contributions for this cause in former years, but have gone beyond them.

The number of contributing churches has this year been 507. From 468 Southern churches which contributed last year, nothing has this year been received. Therefore, over one hundred churches have contributed this year to our Colportage Fund for the first time.

The expenditures for Colportage during the year have been $18,687.96. The sum of $4,483.85 has been paid upon the balance reported last year, thereby reducing it from $12,983.51 to $8,499.66, at which it stood on the 28th day of February last.

 BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

COMMITTEE ROOMS—No. 88 Market Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Corresponding Secretary—REV. HENRY I. COE.

Treasurer—ARCHIBALD GAMBLE.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting our Seventh Annual Statement to the General Assembly, we are compelled to report that the work of Church Extension has shared largely in the disasters of the country. As compared with the previous year, the receipts for the last twelve months have fallen off forty-six per cent., the number of applications forty-four per cent., and of appropriations twenty-seven per cent. While these not unexpected results are to be deplored, there are not wanting facts full of encouragement. The simple fact, that the work of church building, from its very nature peculiarly susceptible to the paralyzing influences of civil war, has suffered no more in the midst of our tremendous struggle, clearly indicates its necessity, and the permanent value of the Church Extension scheme.

Again, though nearly one-third of the churches enrolled on the Minutes of the last General Assembly, have this year refrained from supporting its enterprises, the number of giving churches named in the usual statement of receipts herewith submitted, is four hundred and eight, being within twenty-six per cent. of last year, while the amount contributed by churches falls short less than twenty per cent.

Indeed, if the decrease in the contributions for the Children's Church, and in legacies, be taken into the account, the receipts from the other and less fluctuating sources are somewhat in advance of the previous year.

In presenting, therefore, the usual details of our work during the last twelve months, we feel that we have abundant reason to thank God, and take courage.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid put on file from April 1, 1861, to April 1, 1862, was sixty-nine. These applications were from churches in the bounds of twenty-three Synods, forty-three Presbyteries, and twenty-one states and territories. These sixty-nine churches ask for aid amounting in the aggregate to $24,572.45, averaging $356.12 each.

Besides these new applications filed during the year, there were on file and undisposed of, April 1, 1861, ninety-four applications, calling for $36,116.75. The Board therefore had before them, during the twelve months under review, one hundred and sixty-three applications, asking for $60,689.20.

During the year, thirty-five applications, calling for $14,400, were stricken from the file, because the requisite information had not been furnished in the two years allowed for that purpose.

There remained on file, and undisposed of, April 1, 1862, applications from sixty-one churches, calling for $24,991.75.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year ending April 1, 1862, appropriations amounting to $13,866.10, were made to fifty-five churches, in the bounds of twenty Synods, thirty-nine Presbyteries, and seventeen states and territories. The average amount appropriated to each of these fifty-five churches was $252.11, or leaving out of view the special donations, $172.58.

Appropriations from the general fund, amounting to $1,550, were during the year withdrawn from five churches, to two of whom, however, new appropriations were soon after made.

The names and localities of all these churches may be found in the appendix to this report.

From April 1, 1861, to April 1, 1862, fifty-eight churches received their appropriations. The amount paid on their account was $17,777.45.

In view of the peculiar state of public affairs, the Board during the year refrained from anticipating its income, and made no appropriations until the funds were in the treasury to meet them.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The appropriated balance in the treasury, April 1, 1861, was $13,874.55. The receipts during the year were $17,064.17, of which sum $11,177.40 was from churches. The available means of the year were, therefore, $30,938.72.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the treasurer's statement in the appendix, were $20,182.43. The balance in the treasury, April 1, 1862, was, consequently, $10,756.29. There were, however, unpaid at that time appropriations amounting to $10,060.48, leaving as the unappropriated balance, April 1, 1862, $695.81. This sum, though contributed during the fiscal year, was not reported to us until after its close, and was appropriated soon after its receipt was known.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.

Remembering that the Board was created to aid feeble churches in the new and destitute regions, we have continued to use our influence in favour of economy in church building. Since the organization of the Board, July, 1855, appropriations have been made to four hundred and forty-seven different churches. Of these, sixty-one were aided by special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility. As nearly as can be ascertained, the remaining three hundred and eighty-six churches cost $761,577, or $1,973 apiece.

When the average cost of materials during the last seven years, the vast expanse of country over which the funds were disbursed, and the peculiarly heavy outlay for building required in those prairie regions where the larger part of the work has been performed, are considered, no reasonable man will regard $1,973 as an extravagant average for the cost of the churches assisted by the Board.

A number of churches, whose cost was far above the average, have indeed been aided, but these were either cases in which a small gift from the Board was necessary to save large previous expenditures by the congregations themselves, or in which donors took the responsibility of designating such churches as the recipients of their gifts. If the special donations we did not control be left out of view, the average cost of the churches aided by the Board during the year was $1,127.90.

THE CHILDREN'S CHURCH.

At the time of our last annual report, we confidently expected to be able to report to the present General Assembly that the Children's Church at St. Anne was completed. This expectation has not been realized. Causes we could neither foresee nor guard against have greatly delayed the work and increased its cost. We pushed forward the building as rapidly as we could until the month of September last. Then, finding that the funds contributed for that church were more than exhausted, that our appeals for aid were but scantily responded to, and that the very peculiar state of things at St. Anne rendered it impossible to ascertain what it would cost to finish the structure, we reluctantly suspended work until more propitious times. We cherish the hope that God, who has moved so mysteriously in regard to the work among the French Canadians in Illinois, may soon open the way for the completion of this noble monument to the liberality of the children of our church.

We ought, perhaps, to add, that of the $1,450 received by the Board for this enterprise during the fiscal year under review, more than $800 was really contributed previous to April 1, 1861, though not paid over to the Board by the parties who had received it, until some time after that date.

AMOUNT OF AID NEEDED.

In closing this Report, we deem it not improper to submit a few facts respecting the amount of aid needed by our feeble churches. Twenty years ago, when the work of church extension lay almost wholly in those heavily timbered regions where log churches could be erected, and made to serve all necessary purposes, until congregations grew strong, one hundred dollars, to purchase nails, glass, and the few other cash articles needed, was a large amount of aid to be given, and in most cases was amply sufficient. This state of things no longer exists. The wave of population and of church destitution has rolled into those prairie regions where log buildings are almost unknown, and where nearly every article used in the construction of churches requires the outlay of money. Moreover, even in those localities where log cabins once answered every purpose, the increase of population, and the general change in the style of building, renders them now, in most cases, unsuitable.

Accordingly we find, that out of seven hundred and sixty-one applications filed since the organization of the Board, only one hundred and nine, or one-seventh, were for one hundred dollars, or less; and that of the four hundred and forty-seven different churches encouraged by appropriations of the Board, three hundred and fifty-seven, or four-fifths, required more than one hundred dollars aid, to enable them to complete their sanctuaries free from debt.

If it be further remembered that one hundred dollars is but about one-twentieth of the average cost of the churches seeking aid from the Board, it will appear still more clearly that a larger sum is requisite to meet their necessities. In most cases, more than double that amount must be given, unless the process of church erection is to be made unduly exhaustive to our feeble churches. While, therefore, we have always been hampered by inadequate receipts, and have ever felt bound to make the scanty means put at our disposal go as far as possible, the experience of seven years convinces us that the General Assembly ought not to expect the five hundred houseless churches, still in its connection, to secure unencumbered sanctuaries with an average aid of less than two hundred or two hundred and fifty dollars.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON THE FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS IN NEED, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

The contributions to the Fund of Disabled Ministers, &c., during the past year, have been affected not a little by the condition of the country. Nothing has been received from churches in some parts, that had heretofore given largely. In very many cases the most liberal and wealthy have suffered so severely by the stagnation of business, pecuniary losses, and other injurious changes, that they could not obey the generous impulses of their hearts. But though the area of our gleanings has been so much narrower, yet the aggregate has been much greater than that of any former year. At the meeting of the Assembly in 1861, the appropriations reported by the Treasurer had exceeded the receipts to the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars. We have the pleasure of informing the Assembly of 1862, that all demands upon the treasury have been met, and that the surplus will be sufficient to answer the applications that are commonly received before the usual time of making the largest annual collections. Doubtless there are numerous cases of need, of which the Committee have not heard, and in many of those reported, a larger sum was probably wanted, and would have been asked, had the applicant supposed that it would have been warranted by the condition of our treasury.

But much as the Trustees have been encouraged by the increased zeal and liberality of some churches, yet the number of those that contribute nothing to this cause is still too large, and among them, are some of the most affluent and strongest. Six of those whom it has been our privilege to assist, have died, four of them far advanced in life. Although the applications hitherto received from Presbyteries in several States south of us, have not been renewed within the year, yet so many new cases have been reported from other quarters, that the number relieved is nearly the same as in the preceding year. Of these, twenty are ministers, twenty-six widows, most of them with several children, and five are families of orphans. Some are superannuated and feeble in both mind and body, having lived beyond the age of fourscore years and four, others are laid aside by chronic disease in the prime of life. A few have been helped, who were disabled only for a season, as in the case of an excellent brother, whose health had become impaired by his excessive labours, for whom assistance was asked till the time of his recovery. One aged minister, to whom an appropriation was made for several years, while he was an invalid, has become a contributor to this fund. On being restored to health, he was invited to a pastoral charge, where, though his income is but small, yet, as a token of his gratitude, he has since made to our fund a yearly thank-offering of ten dollars. Another pastor, with a dependent family, on the failure of his health, became greatly depressed in mind. His condition was beginning to cause serious apprehensions for his life, when an application was made to the Committee for his relief. On receiving a remittance he soon began to convalesce. His health is now fully restored, his mind has recovered its former activity and cheerfulness, and he has returned to his field of labour with the prospect of increased usefulness. One of his brethren, writing to the Chairman afterwards, says, "your timely aid to brother — has saved him to our Presbytery. He must have sunk, if your fund had not held him up for a little space, to give him time to recuperate. This alone should bind the Presbytery to you."

To some of these ministers and widows, the disbursement from our fund has been their main support. In other cases, the amount asked by their Presbytery has been only enough to supply the deficiencies of their own earnings. The greatest number aided are orphans, with one parent living in most instances, and in five, they have neither.

In the early part of the year, an appropriation of one hundred dollars was made to a lady who has been a widow for twelve years. A letter received not many weeks ago, informs us, that "for several months during the year, she has not been in her right mind." At the time of the request for aid, she was supposed to be in her last sickness, and so near its termination, that at her own suggestion, a portion of the money received was deposited with a friend, to pay the expenses of her burial. To the disappointment of herself, and the surprise of others, she still survives, though in a state of great bodily suffering.

Two respectable ministers in the West, without pastoral charges, and unfitted for missionary labour, were reported to the Committee as having no means of self-support whatever. Nor is their extremity the result of improvidence or the want of thrift. At no period of their ministerial life have they been able to provide against the straits of old age, any more than against its gray hairs and manifold infirmities. The letters of thanks received by the Committee evince affectionate and grateful hearts. The writers recognise with deep feeling, both the sympathy and kindness of their brethren, and the goodness and mercy of God.

An aged lady, of a lovely Christian spirit, and one of the attractions of the village where she lives, "begs the Committee to accept her little note of thanks, as a token of gratitude for the timely relief afforded her. These kind acts of the church," she adds, "redound to the glory of God, through many thanksgivings; and in the great day of accounts, it will be manifested in what manner the Lord looks upon every deed of kindness done in his name and for his sake—Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me. That you, and all who minister to my wants, may be daily fed with the bread of Heaven, and that all the dear family of God may be preserved, in the hour of trial, is the prayer of yours, &c."

An interesting pastor, who, within six months has had four attacks of copious hemorrhage of the lungs, and who feels himself to be on the verge of the grave, says: "My heart yearns to acknowledge the kindness shown me, and yet I hardly know how to do it. I thank you, of course, for your agency; but O! how shall I sufficiently thank God, who ordered his servants thus to deal with me, not only to supply my necessities, which I do not see how else could have been met, but to do it in a way so soothing to a stricken heart? God bless you abundantly for it! But I will not enlarge. All I wish you to feel certain of is, that in disbursing this fund, the Trustees are instruments of more good than they are aware of, to the Saviour's poor, unworthy servants."

Another sufferer, and one of the six that within the year have entered into their rest, on receiving a remittance, writes: "Truly was my spirit unfettered yesterday, when I got the check for one hundred dollars. I have felt better ever since. I am grateful to my Shepherd, who always provides for me; and I bless the Lord for this provision of the church, and pray that it may be fully sustained, and that, with me, thousands may rejoice because of it."

The instruction of the last Assembly, to send the Report from the Trustees, with their own resolutions, to all the churches under their care, was obeyed. To the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery that could be reached by mail, copies enough were directed to furnish one for each member. It may be inferred from the increased number of contributions to the treasury, that in many instances it has been read, and its injunctions heeded, though not in all. In view of the statements which attend the application of Presbyteries, and which are signed by the Stated Clerk, the Trustees believe that the money which they have disbursed has not been misapplied by being given either in too large sums, or to unworthy recipients. The instruction of the Assembly, to dispense it to none but on the recommendation of a Presbytery, is very important. So far as it is possible, by any ordinary provision, it guards the Trustees against giving it, as some perhaps might fear, to foster indolence or an abject spirit, which is too often generated by depending on a continued gratuity.

It is not to be concealed, that the perverted uses sometimes made of philanthropic institutions of all sorts, have caused many of their most liberal friends to be jealous of their practical tendencies; whether such remedies do not nurture the very disease they are intended to cure. Funds contributed for the relief of suffering of any kind, will always find objects enough on which to expend them. Applicants for aid, it is said, will usually multiply in proportion to the increase of the means. Doubtless this to some extent is true; but it is an evil that is incidental to all institutions which partake of the nature of eleemosynary, and which must exist under this disadvantage, or not exist at all. It is one of the imperfections that are inseparable from all organizations, human or divine, that are conducted by human agency. Even the contributions of the Church for her needy members, tempts the unworthy to make a hypocritical profession, and partake in her ordinances. Christ was followed by multitudes to eat of his "loaves and fishes," and not to adore the divinity exhibited in his miracles. But among the many who have availed themselves of this fund, the Trustees are not aware that any have thus abused the confidence of their brethren. Nor do they apprehend that such a provision of the Assembly for her disabled brethren conduces to improvidence. It is believed, that with comparatively few exceptions, our young ministers exercise due prudence and forethought in providing against penury in age, or for any future contingency. The number is large and increasing, of those who have obtained policies of life insurance, and not less than one hundred, it is said, have been taken by clergymen in a well-established office in one of our large cities. To many, this important measure is impracticable during any period of their life, while a few, perhaps, indiscreetly postpone it till the requisite premium has become too great.

But so far as the Trustees have observed, this provision for our suffering ministry has proved less a lure to the unworthy than a comfort to the desponding and meritorious. It has not only cheered the spirits, but has prolonged the life of some of our most beloved and honoured members. Among these there are not a few, who, in spite of the utmost economy in their domestic expenditures from the first, have never had a surplus dollar to invest for old age, or a state of disability that often precedes it. When such persons avail themselves of the aid of the Church, it is their necessity and not their choice; and the motives with which they receive it are honourable and Christian. They accept it thankfully, and only so far and so long as it is absolutely needed. An aged minister in want, for whom an appropriation was asked by his Presbytery, without his knowledge, refused to receive it when granted, on account of some scruples as to his legitimate claim to money given for those only who are disabled. He therefore declined the proffered kindness of his brethren, who knew his condition to be far more desperate than he was conscious of, or was willing to admit.

It has been the aim of the Trustees, in executing their trust, to veil every aspect of their agency which would make it humiliating or painful to those who are its objects. Some of these have been reduced to want, from high social positions, are refined in their tastes, and feel their changed condition deeply. It is our pleasure to assure these friends, that what they receive is less the gift of their brethren than their debt; it is not our gratuity, but is their legitimate claim. If these servants of Christ have sacrificed their health, or have spent their life and become "old and gray-headed" in sowing unto the Church spiritual things, is it a great thing that they should reap her carnal things? Her annual contributions for this object, then, are not among her alms, but her obligations. The Assembly is an association of brethren for mutual relief; and when, in the providence of God, any are constrained to ask it, there is nothing in such a necessity which should disparage the receivers, either in their own eyes or in those of their brethren.

In the last report of the Trustees to the Assembly, a few suggestions were made in relation to those pastors whose feeble health would constrain them to resign their pulpit, could they live without its income. In addition to these, are superannuated missionaries whose inadequate salaries have barely afforded them food and raiment through their long itinerant life. They are now too old and infirm to continue their arduous labours, but on what are they to depend for bread? One of the ladies aided by our fund is the widow of a missionary who died in 1858, at the age of seventy-one. He was a faithful and successful servant of Christ to the end of his life. He left no property, and after his death his wife supported herself by teaching instrumental music till rendered incapable by the almost total loss of her hearing. She is too aged and infirm to use her needle, and has no friends who can give her a home. An interesting case is mentioned in a recent number of the Home and Foreign Record of a labourer under the Domestic Board, who, six months since, requested to be discharged on account of his increasing infirmities. During a protracted missionary life he had organized thirty churches, three Presbyteries, and one Synod. At the age of seventy-three, he and his venerable companion are left without the means to purchase their clothing, which, he modestly says, is all that he asks from the Board. "It is here and in such cases," as the Secretary of that Board well remarks, "that we feel the need of large supplies in the Fund for Disabled Ministers, whereby the Church might place such on their retired list, and soothe the decline of a life employed for Christ."

Among the three or four hundred ministers of our Church who have reached their post-meridian state, there are many pastors and evangelists who are holding with a feeble grasp to posts of labour which they can but inadequately fill. The Trustees would again call the attention of the Assembly to the case of such brethren, as claiming their deepest sympathy. Some sister denominations have provided for their relief with commendable liberality, and a few thousand dollars would furnish all that is required for this purpose in our own. A large and ample fund was raised for this object among the orthodox Independents of England, through the influence of the late Rev. John Angell James; what has been done by the Free Church of Scotland is familiarly known.

Nor should we any longer neglect to provide for the release of these aged servants from labours that were once so delightful, but which have now become a burden. And could our whole Church be brought to contribute annually to our Fund, with the same cheerfulness and liberality that they manifest in giving to our noble Boards, this desirable object could be fully attained. The way would be open for the withdrawing of these exhausted labourers from their vineyards, after having borne the burden and heat of a long day. They could then quietly yield their places to others, who are younger, more vigorous and efficient. The case of these aged pastors and missionaries is essentially one, and can be best provided for in the same way. What other method can be proposed, by which we could collect and disburse among so many persons, and so widely scattered, such an amount of money, with so little noise, trouble, and cost. Even with the small means at present contributed by our churches, every sufferer reported to the Committee receives material aid. It is furnished in the most delicate way, and as soon as his case can be regularly presented. The only defect in the Assembly's plan is in the want of power to give it effect on the heart and conscience.

Not a few of our ministers, whether from motives of delicacy, or other causes, have failed to manifest that personal solicitude which they might be presumed to feel, for the relief of their afflicted brethren. And it is due to the elders and several prominent laymen of our Church, to acknowledge, that for what has been accomplished in this cause, we are not a little indebted to them. This method, moreover, is simple, calling for no cumbrous machinery of multitudinous officers, committees, and costly instrumentalities. Its Executive Agents are sustained with little or no expense to the cause. The Trustees, in their corporate capacity, can receive and expend, or invest to any amount that the church will contribute. Their Treasurer, has hitherto, very cheerfully and faithfully taken charge of the contributions of the church for this object, by which his official labours have become much increased. Nor is anything required to make the most ample provisions for all; for the orphan and widow in need, for our sick and superannuated ministers, whether without pastoral charges, or feebly labouring in them, but a general, cordial, and continued co-operation of our churches. All that the Assembly need do in the form of legislation has been done already. They have given the cause a column in the statistical table of their Minutes, thus calling on their churches for their annual contributions. That so many congregations should have treated with indifference, for fourteen years, their reiterated appeals, is scarcely less surprising than it is painful. But let these injunctions of the Assembly be faithfully obeyed, and not fitfully and occasionally by some, and not at all by others; let collections be made from year to year by all, with as much promptitude and zeal as the cause demands, and not only will a great duty be accomplished, but our beloved and honoured Church be delivered from a greater reproach.

Signed by the Committee of Trustees,

JOSEPH H. JONES, Chairman and Secretary.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is a necessity for calling the particular attention of the churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism; and it is now in debt several hundred dollars. Delegates to Corresponding Bodies cannot have their expenses paid without an increase of this Fund.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

In addition to the above, where copies are sent by mail, six cents additional must be forwarded to prepay postage, according to the present demand of the Post Office.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, if they have no printed blanks, after the form on the page opposite. Blanks can always be obtained gratis, on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Princeton, N. J., not later than the first day of June, fully post-paid.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterial Reports should be made out at or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery for ratification and sanction.

Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

FORM OF PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Presbytery of _____ Ministers, and have under their care Churches, Licentiates, and Candidates, viz. _____

MINISTERS, LICENTIATES, AND CANDIDATES.	POST-OFFICE CHURCHES.	Communicants.	Baptized.		No. of Children in Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes.	Funds Collected.

		Added on certificate.
		Added on examination.

☞ Add up,
omitting cents.

Follow the above with a statement of licensures, ordinations, installations, pastoral relations dissolved, churches organized or dissolved, or received or dismissed to other denominations, and ministers received or dismissed to other denominations, or removed by death, since last Report.

Dated, _____, Signed, _____, Stated Clerk.

Give the names of licentiates, but only the number of candidates, without name. It is earnestly requested that the above order of columns may be strictly followed, and that the columns may all be carefully added up. To ministers who are pastors, annex P.; to stated supplies, S. S.; to Domestic Missionaries, D. M.; to Foreign Missionaries, F. M.; to Presidents of Colleges, Pres.; to Professors in Colleges or Theological Seminaries, Prof.; to Agents, Ag.; to Chaplains, Chap.; and to Editors, Edit.; to congregations which have pastors, annex P.; to those which have stated supplies, S. S.; and to those which are vacant, V.

Resolved: The Assembly, in order to simplify its statistical tables, and to render them more full and accurate as to the contributions of the churches for religious purposes, That the form of reports as to collections be hereafter as follows:—1. For Domestic Missions: to include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Boards, or any of the judicatories of the Church. 2. Foreign Missions: including all moneys for that purpose. 3. Education: including all that is given for the education of candidates for the ministry: for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies, Parochial and Sabbath-schools. 4. Publication: all moneys for the Board of Publication, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories, and Colportage. 5. Church Extension: to include all moneys given for church erection outside of the congregation, whether through the Board of Church Extension or otherwise. 6. Disabled Ministers' Fund: to include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and to aid the families of deceased ministers. 7. Congregational: all moneys contributed for the congregation, as pastors' salaries, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses; also to include Commissioners' and Contingent Funds. 8. Miscellaneous: including all other collections.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN REGARD TO COLLECTIONS.

Whereas, Many of our churches do not contribute to our benevolent enterprises, and whereas, it is desirable to test the power of simultaneous effort; and whereas an emergency has arisen, requiring the coöperation of all our churches to save our Boards from serious embarrassment, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly earnestly request all our churches that have no fixed times for the purpose, to take up annual collections as follows, viz.

For the BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS on the first Sabbath of November.

For the BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS on the first Sabbath of January.

For the BOARD OF EDUCATION on the first Sabbath of March.

For the COLPORTAGE FUND OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION on the first Sabbath of May.

For the BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION on the first Sabbath of July.

For the DISABLED MINISTERS' FUND on the first Sabbath of September.

Resolved, 2. That when the annual collections cannot be taken up on the days above designated, it be recommended to take them up as soon thereafter as possible.

—Minutes of 1861, p. 349.

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST

BOARDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give the RIGHT CORPORATE NAME.

The oldest Board was originally called the Board of Missions, but is now incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, under the title of "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

Of the Board of Education the corporate name is, "The Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Board of Foreign Missions is incorporated under the laws of New York, under the style of "The Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Board of Publication is incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, under the style of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication."

The Board of Church Extension of the General Assembly is not incorporated, but a bequest in the following form, it is supposed, would be valid.

I bequeath to my executors the sum of dollars, in trust, to pay over the same in after my decease, to the person who, when the same shall be payable, shall act as Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located in the City of St. Louis, Missouri, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Board, and under its directions, and the receipt of the said Treasurer shall be a full and legal acquittance of my said executors for the same.

☞ When real estate or other property is given, let it be particularly described.

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR DISABLED MINISTERS OR FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, dollars, in trust, nevertheless, that they shall, within months after my decease, pay the same to George H. Van Gelder, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or to his successor for the time being in said office, for the use of such disabled ministers and their families, as the said, The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, shall or may designate.

NOTE.—This form will do for a pecuniary bequest. If stocks, or land, or other property is given, the phraseology should be modified to suit the case.
